LUDWIG FISHER was born and raised in Germany. He grew to manhood there and one day while strolling thru the Royal Observatory, he chanced to see a deer and shot and killed it. On returning home he related the incident to his Father. His Father, knowing this to be a crime punishable by penalty of death, prepared his son for the journey to America, took him to the ~~prat~~ for sailing, and sent him to Culpepper County, Virginia. Ludwig settled there and in due time made the acquaintance of a lady whom he later married. This union reared a family of five sons.

ADAM FISHER, one of these sons, drifted over the mountians into Rockingham County, Virginia, and settled there, where he eventually met and married Catherine Snider. They raised a family of seven sons and three daughters. The son's names were: William, Joseph, David, Harvey, Jacob, Wahington and Henry (who was the father of J. T. Fisher and his brothers and sisters).

This ADAM FISHER proved to be our Grand-father.

In an ~~eraly~~ day, this family embarked in wagons and teams and made their way to the western part of Virginia and settled in the Upper Flats of Mason County. Shortly after landing there, they ~~purchaed~~ a farm. This farm purchased by Adam Fisher was a 200 acre farm, for which he paid $400, later he pruchased 80 acres adjoining it on the east for $80. He also obtained a patent on a 500 acre place, which he afterward sold to his two sons, Joseph and Henry.

WILLIAM FISHER married a lady from Ohio and raised two daughters and one son. Catherine, the older daughter, married George McDaniel and raised two sons and two daughters. Franklyn and George, the sons, and Frances and Ella, the daughters. He also raised an illegitimate son, who drifted over into Putnam County, Virginia, and married and raised two daughters and a son. The son, J. M. Fisher married and raised a family of five or six sons and fully as many daughters.

JOSEPH FISHER married a Partlow and raised two sons and three daughters, namely: Jacob, Thomas H., Mary Anne, Luch Anne, and Martha Anne. Jacob married Jennie Riffle and raised one ~~duaghter~~ and passed away. Mary Anne married James A. Rayburn and they raised two daughters and one ~~sone~~, Viola, Ida, M. and Charles T. Viola married when up in years and reared no family. Charles T. married Carrie Zuspan and they raised two daughters and one son. Lucy Anne married George Van Sickle, when up in years and they had no family. George passed away suddenly while traveling to market in a wagon. Lucy Anne passed away at Point Pleasant, West Virginia later on. Martha Anne married Jonathan Riffle and they raised two sons and one daughter. Thomas, the older son, went west and remained out there. Joseph married and a few years later passed away. Levia Jane was still single, living with friends, the last I heard of her. Thomas H. married Sarah Rayburn and they raised two daughters and one son. The daughters both passed away unmarried. The son married a Miss McMillan and they had 4 children. Thomas H. married a lady from the east and they raised a son, Dorsel, and a daughter, Wanda. Both Thomas H. and wife are now deceased.

DAVID FISHER married a Roush and had five sons, Matison, Henry, Daniel, George and Peter; and four daughters, Belle, Mary, Anne and Kitty. ears ago in Thomas Ridge community in West Virginia. Mrs. isher, who before her marriage was iss Susanna R. Thomas, was 16 t the time of the wedding and Mr. isher was 23.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were orn in Mason county. At the time f his birth on Feb. 4, 1854, and at ne time of her birth on March 16, 861, the county was in Virginia, but ne state was divided on June 20, 863, and the county was then in Vest Virginia. This was near Point leasant, where the Kanawha river ows into the Ohio and where one f the important battles of the Civil ar was fought.

Mr. Fisher heard the guns and annons of the battle, but was too oung to participate in the fighting. lowever, his older brother, Jake isher, 85, now of Conway Springs, nd another brother, David, now of nid, were active in the ranks of ne Confederate army. Fisher has brother, Robert, of Milan, Kans., nd two other brothers, George and ohnnie, both living in West Virinia.

He is a brother of Mrs. Emma uffy, of Checotah, the mother of harles B. Duffy, state senator of is county. There were 14 children n the Fisher family.

Mrs. Fisher has two brothers, harles and Grif Thomas, and three sters, Mrs. Blanch Pickens, Mrs. yrt Sayre and Mrs. Med Peck, who ll reside in West Virginia, and anher brother, John Thomas, of linois.

The couple have six children, even grandchildren and eight great randchildren.

Following their marriage, Mr. and rs. Fisher lived for several years a 1-room log cabin where the rst baby, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, was cked in a sugar tree which had een hollowed out. From this comunity in West Virginia, they moved Sugar Camp Hollow in the same ate, later moving to Argonia, ans., in 1909.

They came to Blackwell in 1918 nd have resided at their present sidence since that time. Mr. Fish's occupations have been school acher and farmer.

His hobbies are numerous for he elights in gardening, fishing, hunting and in carpenter work. In rent years he has constructed a iniature log cabin similar to his ildhood home which shows one om and loft, with the cabin havg only one window.

Mrs. Fisher's favorite pastime is ecing quilts and sewing.

Thursday, the 60th wedding anniersary of the couple, marked the rst anniversary they have celeated in eight years.

J. T. Fishers To Celebrate Their 60th Wedding Anniversary Thursday

The Couple, Both Natives Of The South, Came To Blackwell About Twenty Years Ago; Were Reared With Large Families In Log Cabins.

On April eighth sixty years ago Miss Susanna R. Thomas, then sixteen years old, and Mr. J. T. Fisher were married in Thomas Ridge community in West Virginia, and to celebrate that occasion their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren will gather at their home, 524 West Oklahoma avenue, Thursday for an elaborate anniversary dinner and observance. A son, Mr. Everett Fisher, of Audubon, Minn., and family will be unable to attend.

Dinner will be served at one long table, colorful with bouquets of spring flowers, and places will be set for four daughters, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, Blackwell; Mrs. A. F. Bernider and Vertise Banner of Los Angeles, who arrived Sunday; Mr. A. A. Fisher of Wellington; and Mrs. E. R. Walcher of Wichita.

Other relatives will include Mr. and Mrs. Smith Roush and daughters, Gloria Ann and Maralee, of Ellinwood, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roush and daughter, Nancy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Walcher and children, Barbara Jean and Ernie Brock, of Blackwell, and Chester and Sue Ala Walcher of Wichita.

Mrs. Fisher was born on March sixteenth, eighteen hundred sixty-one in Thomas Ridge county, the county being named after her family. There were twelve children in the family and seven are still living. Mr. Fisher's birthplace is Mason county, Virginia. He was born February fourth, eighteen hundred fifty-four. He is one of fourteen children with nine still living.

For several years following their marriage the couple lived in a one room log cabin, where Mrs. Fisher rocked her first baby, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, in a sugar tree, which had been hollowed out. From there they moved to Sugar Camp Hollow in the same state, later moving to Argonia, Kans., in nineteen hundred and ten. They moved to Blackwell about twenty years ago and have resided at the above address since that time.

Although reared in a one room log cabin with a loft overhead for sleeping quarters to which they entered by a ladder, the fourteen children of the Fisher family were all well educated. Mr. J. T. Fisher taught school in Virginia for thirty years.

As a pastime during recent years he has constructed a miniature log cabin, symbolic of his childhood home, showing the one room and loft. The cabin has one small window, and an opening between two logs served as a window in the attic or loft. They slept under the beds as well as on them.

A number of fantastic events during the Civil war are vaguely remembered by the couple. Mrs. Fisher remembers of General Grant and his army stopping at their home for something to eat, and of her mother feeding them buttermilk. Relatives of both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher served in the war, one of his brothers enlisting at the age of sixteen and serving until the close of the war.

Mr. Fisher lived only a few miles from Point Pleasant, Va., where a part of the fighting took place, and he remembers hearing the guns and cannons.

They also can relate interesting stories of strifes with the Indians, and told how a chief, "Constock" and his son were shot down by settlers of the new territory and how they were buried under the steps of the courthouse. As a curse on the people the old Indian prophesied that that community would never prosper, which proved to be true, the couple agreed, the community being moved since the recent flood to higher ground.

It has been eight years since Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher and family have joined for a reunion, and the group are anticipating a grand time.

Family Gathering At Home of Fishers, Wed Sixty Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher

Of wide interest in the city and of supreme interest to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma avenue, was the gala celebration held in their home Thursday in observance of their diamond wedding anniversary.

At noon an elaborate luncheon was served to the guests, which included their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. All of their children were able to attend with the exception of a son, Everett Fisher, of Audubon, Minn.

Flowers decorated the home, and other appointments stressed a spring note in table arrangements, with a beautiful bouquet of gladiolus and daisies centering the table which was a gift from Hart's Flower shop. Mrs. John Zook sent them a beautiful orchid hydrangia plant.

Guests attending the affair presented Mr. and Mrs. Fisher with an electric refrigerator. Those attending included their daughters, Mrs. J. B. Sheets of Blackwell, Mrs. A. F. Bernider of Los Angeles, Calif.; a son, A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; and daughters, Mrs. E. R. Walcher of Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. Vertise Banner of Los Angeles, Calif.

Others participating in the anniversary observance were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith Roush and daughters, Gloria Ann and Marilee, of Ellinwood, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roush and daughter, Nancy Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Walcher and children, Barbara Jean and Ernie Brock, of Blackwell; Mrs. A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; E. R. Walcher and Sue Ala and Chester, of Wichita, Kans.

The couple were united in marriage in a wedding ceremony of 60 years ago in Thomas Ridge community in West Virginia. Mrs. Fisher, who before her marriage was Miss Susanna R. Thomas, was 16 at the time of the wedding and Mr. Fisher was 23.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were born in Mason county. SEA SCOUT PATROL TAKES FORM HERE

Morgan Haight 'Skipper Of New City Organization

A new type of scouting has just recently been introduced to Blackwell Scouts.

It is known as Sea Scouting and is for the more advanced boys. It is obtaining its start in Blackwell with the Presbyterian troop with Morgan Haight, sr., as the "skipper."

Assisting Haight are John Giesin and Alfred Porter. The officers, who were elected last Monday are Emmett Coleman, first mate; B. Wiles, jr., second mate; and the crew are Napier Briggs, John Anderson, Morgan Haight, jr., Donald Nichols, Darwin Drake, Vincent Davis, James Wray, Ed Jewsberry jr.

Will Build Boats

At the present time the organization is merely a patrol, but the boys expect to develop it to a full size troop as soon as they get organized.

The boys plan to build canoes, rowboats, sailboats, and a small ship built on a scale model which will accomodate all of the scouts. They also hope to obtain a motor boat or two.

The construction will be done under the supervision of Haight who was an officer in the navy during the war. The boats will be used on the new lake, where the scouts will build a boathouse.

Dear Mr. Fisher,

I am researching my Grandmother's family of Fisher and have been given your name from a cousin, Gloria Ann Roush McDaniel of Point Pleasant, West Virginia. My Grandmother was Lestie Ara Fisher Walcher, daughter of James Thomas "Tom" Fisher of Blackwell, OK.

Gloria indicated to me that you had some very interesting information regarding our family. I am sending you a generation chart in order that you can determine my possible relation to you.

My Great Grandfather, "Tom" Fisher, was very interested in writing the Family Tree information and I will be glad to share additional information with you.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Barb,

I'm still going through Mother's stuff. The pictures dated 1972 are ones taken at Grandma Shutt's funeral. Am sure you probably have these — they can be extras for your kids — or whatever (whatever)!

Rain is predicted — we need moisture so badly - hope we get an inch or two.

Happy Easter -

Love,

Dear Nancy,

Just a short note...so much going on here...Mother is back home now...Julie will have C section with the baby on Friday and Jack will have prostate surgery on Monday the 26 th. However, I wanted to get these items off to you, have had them on my desk much too long...

Want to thank you for all the pictures, clippings, etc. They are priceless to me...have worked a little on the Fisher information, but have a ways to go...Dean Grimm in Parker, Colorado is working on the Henry Fisher family and has almost all the family up to date. We are a bit short...do not know where Uncle Everet's grandson (who are about our ages) are, but maybe will find them someday...and need some info on Aunt Lena then should have most of it together. Dean is planning to publish so would like to have the info for him.

Hope the trip to D.C. was wonderful...let me know how it went.

Mother says we lived next door to each other when we were young...that is why there are so many pictures of us together.

Am enclosing a picture hoping perhaps Aunt Frances can help identify "The Bunch", I have found Mother remembers so much when she sees a picture.

I made a small booklet for my siblings and thought you might enjoy a copy also. I Suz is interested, please let me know and I will get another copy together or you might just copy this one. When copying, take to center which does color coping and request them to turn off the color - copy in B&W. It is amazing the results, I think!

Better get this together for the post office - want to get it there today. More later by email.

As Always, Love to you cousin....

In Remembrance

Deep in each heart God puts the need
Of a love that is tender and strong.
The need of one who will understand
Each sorrow and share each song.
And to us all, He grants one gift
Sweeter than any other,
To answer this need for Tenderness
He gives us each A MOTHER.

The Dash

I read of a reverend who stood up to speak at the funeral of his friend.
He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning...to the end.
He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.
For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth, and now only those who love her know what that little line is worth.
For it matters not, how much we own;
the cars, the house, the cash.
What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.
So think about this long and hard,
are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left.
You could be at "dash mid-range."
If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real,
and always try to understand the way other people feel.
And be less quick to anger,
and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect,
and more often wear a smile,
remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.
So, when your eulogy is being read with your life's actions to rehash... would you be pleased with the things they say about how you spent your dash?

Frances Ann Roush
Secretary, 94

Frances Ann Roush, 94, of Denver, a secretary, died Aug. 1 in Denver. Private family services will be Saturday. Interment will be in Fairmount Cemetery.

She was born Dec. 2, 1906, in Lamar. She attended Stephens College in Columbia, Mo. On Sept. 2, 1930, she married William Dale Roush in Blackwell, Okla. He preceded her in death. Her interests included playing bridge.

She is survived by two daughters, Nancy Persons, Westminster, and Suzanne Lorenzo, Littleton; three grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. Contributions may be made to Friends of Man, P.O. Box 937, Littleton, CO 80160.

Dear Barb,

I told you that I would send you information from mother's memorial service (held on 8/25/01). It was very nice and I think that mother would have been pleased.

Suze's daughter, Jo Ann, put together the photo memorial book - all of us think that she did a really outstanding job. Think you'll like having a copy. I would imagine that ~~it might~~ some pictures might bring back memories for your mom.

I asked the chaplain to read the poem,"The Dash". Everyone at the memorial wanted a copy and I thought you might like a copy also.

So glad we keep in touch.

I'm so used to using my computer, it's hard (now) to type on the typewriter — harder to cover your mistakes!!!

Love Mary

MOTHER
Sometimes at night, before I slept,
I drowsily became aware
That to my bedside you had crept
To tuck me in with loving care:
You thought me sleeping, but I knew-
And still I know that, day by day,
The gentle mother heart of you
Is with me all along my way.

Letter to Mr. R. M. Fisher, Danville, Kansas dated Aug. 17 1887

Clifton Mason County, West Va. August 17, 1887
Mr. R. M. Fisher- Bro. watch out here I come again some times you are at h home when I write and sometimes you are not I suppose I presume you are away now as you have left your dugout. Well I must say I did not intend to write to today but as it is raining now and I cannot go to New Haven I will scratch you a few lines and let you know how things are in this part I till you we have had a long dry spell. there cannot be more than a half crop of corn and maby not more than one third of a crop if that it has been excedingly hot for a long time here. Well as I spoke of going to New Haven you will want to know what is up. I will give you an account of what is up on the morning of August 2, Georgia, Jas. Theodore and I were going to the institute I had knell in the express with Henry Ohlingers mare and us four were in it when Gus Roush and Emery Roush over took us at Wat Hoggs and undertook to pass us and you bet I would not let them unless they could outrun me so away we went them whipping every jump and you know Knell would not let them pass so they run into us on that short turn in the road there below Wat Hoggs and into a ditch on the right hand side of the road and upset and got Levi Roush's buggy tore up. So Levi sues Jo and me for twenty five dollars damage. the time was set at New Haven last Friday and when we went he had us both arrested for trespass so the arrest for trespass was tried first befpre Squire William Jackson and was decided against me he fined me ten dollars and cost that is what I am going to New Haven for to give bond appeal it to court. Lawyer Tomilson tells me I will beat him at' court and I thinks so myself. for this reason I called for a jury on the drurage case it was tried before the jury and you must mind the same evidence was in each case and I beat him in the last case so he has to pay the costs of the damage case and if I get beat in the tres-pass or state case I will have to pay the costs of it and the ten dollars fine besides. then someone will have to pay another fine if they don't watch out for I just feel like using some of my 190 pounds on him now, well I have been about to skin House since he came back here. he came to me in the Point and wanted or let on to want to fight me so I told him I could not fight him there but told him we would try it when we were away from there and he said allright he would fight me anywhere if it was ten or fifteen miles away from there so the same evening I or we overtook him on the hill this side of Perry

knell in express

VanMetre So I told the chap we had just as well fight it out there as anywhere so he gathered a rock and I got one too. I told him if he made a move to throw his I would throw mine through him. He dropped his rock and I dropped mine and walked up to him and told him I could pound him in less than no time and made him acknowledge I was a better man than he was so this is all of this. Now about you getting married you had better have plenty of money ahead first. Well it has quit raining and I must go. Tell Charles I will write when I get time. O yes Aunt Betty Crawford is dead died inJuly this all only we are all well. Yours, J. T. Fisher.

Letters from James Thomas Fisher (my great-grandfather on Daddy's side).

Letter to Mr. R. M. Fisher, Goguac, Kansas dated Nov. 13, 1886

Nov. 12, 1886
Clifton, Mason Co. W. Va.

Dear Sir: It has been some time since I last wrote to you but nevertheless you will hear from me when you hear from me won't you? I would have written sooner but thought you would be gone to Hamilton before the letter would reach you and thought I would wait until you went to Hamilton but have not heard yet but will risk it-to Hamilton anyway I got a letter from Dave the other day and he said you would be there the 31st of October which is past. Well how is Kansas by this time with you boys I understand Johnny has quit his school but have not got the particulars concerning it-I mean just what occurred to cause him to quit it. Well Rob you wanted to know whether we got the worth (worsst) of Will or seemed to think he would have brought more later in the fall I think he was sold at the proper time mind nothing but the horse was sold I have the saddle up her and will get the bridle and halter and bring them up here and sell them if you say so. I have been offering Bill for $115 in cash I tll you, you cannot sell anything here for scarcely anything I still have all four of my horses yet- the colts are nice and fat-as well as the old horses I plowed Charley some when I was plowing for wheat-he was no trouble to walk but you bet he is some fun to ride with a saddle on at least Charley Thomas was going to ride him to Clifton after some alcohol for Tude (my great-grandmother) when she was sick I was plowing the old horses he saddled him and come out to where I was to get on him as I told him to do and took hold of the bits he got a straddle but behind the saddle and before he got on good he was off bad I tell you he is some snot on a pole to ride I have rode him a couple of times since without a saddle Evert rode Mike from Pa's up here we took the wagon down with them so the next time they were worked we put them in the express and went out home with them. I tll you they worked as nice as ever I saw any old horses work there were only five in the express namely Tude, Mary Jane (her sister) Mary Catharine (my grandmother), Evert (her brother) and myself. They pulled us up the big hill could stop them anywhere and they would start as nice as you ever saw any horses. What do you think of them anyway? Well we elected Damuel Spencer for Representative and Edgar Hogg for Congressman. And I sued John Rayburn and he come to time like a little man and payed it before trial I could send it to you but don't think you are in any hurry for it and will use it two or three weeks now if you want it tell me so and I will send it right away. Well Rob I am burning coal this winter like it much better than wood it is always chopped, only 3½ cts per bu made two loads a day easy. You and Johnny be careful what you say to Jim Rayburn and watch.) Same date only a different piece of paper a few words in this for Dave you tell him I got his letter and will tend to that business for him as soon as I can tell him that Pa will go on the note with him also tell him that Pa intended to let him have the money if he could have sold his cattle. I think of going to Bob Somerville to try to borrow it he sold something near tow thousand dollars worth of cattle here lately. Well it has been raining all day and most of last night and tinight it is snowing and is getting cold the first snow we had was last Saturday and Sunday our tomato vines were not killed until las Saturday night. Well did you know Isaac Thomas was married but can't tell you her name, Tude says you wanted her to say something in my letter but she is writing to Emma and wants me to write you a few words for her. She says tell you that if you come back after Maggie she will roast you an old gobler she says some them thinks you will be back ater her sometime in the future, but I say don't take her untill you have something ahead nor no one else. the children are asleep but I can say something for them, they like to hear a few wrds from you boys better than you do to get a letter from Maggie they are both going to school Mert Thomas is here going to school with them they have big times you bet Mr. Thomas allowed to move over on Kanawha river this week this is all for this time write. J. T. Fisher

(on top of letter) him close for it is hard to tell what he will do if he gets you in the dark. if he says anything about me let me know what it is if I had got hold of some talk he talked about me before he left I would have mauled the stuffing out of him. Write soon and give me all the news J. T. Fisher.

Helfer / Helper Family

First Generation

Jacob Helfer died in Rowan County NC in 1808. His will names sons David, Daniel, Henry and Jacob; daughters Elizabeth and Caty; son John's daughter Rebecca; wife Catherine. Catherine appears as head of household in the 1820 and 1830 Rowan County censuses. In 1840 she is not listed, and was probably living with one of her children, most likely Jacob, as her will, written August 1841 and probated August 1842 (Davie Co. NC), states that she was feeble, and names Jacob and several grandchildren.

This name is spelled Helfer in the early records. Daniel's family, and perhaps others, changed the spelling to the English equivalent Helper. At least some of Jacob Jr.'s descendants continue to appear in 19th century records as Helfer.

Second Generation

Children of Jacob and Catherine Helfer, not necessarily in birth order
David Helfer
Daniel Helper (b. before 1794, d. before 1850) m. Sarah Brown (1798-1880)
Henry Helfer m Mary Bradley?
Jacob Helfer m. Sarah Husbands
Elizabeth Helfer
Catherine Helfer
John Helfer (probably d. before 1808), wife's name unknown

Third Generation

Children of Daniel Helper and Sarah Brown
Horace Haston Helper
Henney Minerva Helper
Hardy Hogan Helper (ca. 1821-?) m. Elizabeth ?
Amanda Meriah Helper
Hanson Pinkney Helper m. Mattie McGaw, Sally Catherine Adams
Hampton Lafayette Helper
Hinton Rowan Helper (1829-1909) m. Maria Louisa Rodriguez

Hinton Rowan Helper was the author of The Impending Crisis of the South: How to Meet It, which was published in 1857. This book denouncing slavery was welcomed by abolitionists in the north but made its author one of the most hated men in the south.

Children of Jacob Helfer and Sarah Husbands
Daniel Helfer
Samuel Helfer (ca. 1808-?) m. Sarah ?

From: B Fulton <bfulton@fullnet.net>
To: Dean Grimm <dgrimm@ecentral.com>

Dean, just a short note now...here is a Fisher contact Jack found on Roots-L Digest...the following copies are my correspondence with Cynthia.

PLEASE NOTICE I HAVE MY OWN EMAIL ADDRESS NOW! MORE LATER....BARB

1. Roots-L Digest
>From CRBIN5008@aol.com
Subject:RE:Yeager Family

I know these Yeager Family..Any of these sound familiar?
Soloman Yeager married Susanna Fisher July 6, 1820 in Mason County,VA (WV)

Ambrose Yeager married Sarah Roseberry. Had daughter Anne Laura Yeager married Lewis Thomas Bell, Dec 1893. Elizabeth Yeager married Alexander Clendinen s/0 Andrew and Rebecca Edwards Clendinen. Margaret Yeager married James S. Clendenin.

2. My note to CROBIN5008@aol.com

I found your message on Roots-L Digest posted January 4, 2000. I have Solomon Yeager and Suzanna Fisher in my database. Suzanna was a sister to my gggrandfather, Henry Fisher, son of Adam and Mary Catherine Schneider.

I am interested in corresponding with you. If you will send me your name and address, I will send what information I have on the Yeager-Fisher families. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Barbara Walcher Fulton

Thank you! and Yes you can send me what you have and I can send you what I have on the Fisher Family too. My husband's Great Grandfather Benjamin Franklin Clendenen married Martha Virginia Fisher, daughter of Greenbury Fisher and Juliet Koontz. Greenbury Fisher was son of William and Sarah Samuel Fisher. William was a brother of Henry Fisher.

I may find you have other connections to my family as well SIEGER. My dad
Robert Sieger was grandson of Emma Snyder from Allentown, PA. George Snyder was her father. I believe George was a very prominate business man in his day. My Family history goes back to 1737 when our founding father in America came into Philedelphia Port.
Have you seen my family site in Geocities yet? If not click on this: <A

HREF="http://www.geocities.com/SunsetStrip/Towers/7312/Family/Genealogy.html">
My Family Genealogy Page</A> This has both Clendenen Family and Sieger
Family on it. One other family is being added to my page soon.. Ashman which is actually my birth family. I was adopted into the Sieger Family.
Family
I love the genealogy research as you can see by my dedication to it. I am a history buff too. History on families are what makes the searching so worthwhile..
Here is my address:

Thomas, Yauger, Thornton and Fowler History of Mason County, W. Va.

by Allen G. Thomas

This history of Levi Thomas and his wife, Mary Yauger Thomas, their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Although not quite complete it will serve as a guide to future generations. I have been unable to get information on Levi's father, brothers, or sisters. Only that he was born in Virginia, June 27--1793, and that he was married to Mary Yauger, on November 16--1814, in Alegheny Co. Pa., and that two of his children, Elizabeth, born 5-3-1815, and Enos, born 12-6-1816, were born in Alegheny Co. Pa., then they moved to Meigs, Ohio, in * Muskingum Co. where he operated a blacksmith shop and the other children were born. Then my grandfather, Philip Thomas, brought the whole family to West Virginia, or Virginia at that time, where Philip bought 210 acres for $300.00 on what is know as Thomas Ridge, Cooper district, Mason Co., the Deed to the land is dated 1855.

Written by Levis' Great Grandson

Allen Griffeth Thomas
Rt. 1, Box 12
Leon W.Va. 25123
Phone: 304-458-1761

*Meigs is in Morgan C. Ohio.
I can't explain why they thought they came from Muskingum Co. Ohio.

Dear Cousin Allen:

Thank you for your interesting letter of November 17th. Back in 1954 my Uncle Simeon wrote a family history of the Thomas family, and a copy of it is enclosed.. There are several discrepancies between the dates in the enclosed history and those listed in your letter regarding the children of Levi Thomas.. I have noted the changes on the enclosure. Both my father and Uncle Simeon tried hard to find out the names of the parents of Levi Thomas but were unsuccessful. If you are ever able to learn their names I would appreciate knowing them.

Most sincerely,

Reynolds B. Thomas

LEVI THOMAS was born in Virginia (census return of 1860) on May 27, 1793, and died in Mason County, West Virginia, on December 23, 1864. He was buried in the cemetery at Eckard Chapel between Point Pleasant and Flat Rock.

He moved from Virginia to Pennsylvania and then to the town of Meigs in Muskingum County, Ohio, in 1820. Later he moved to Mason County, West Virginia, and settled on Thomas Ridge, so known because so many of his children and grandchildren settled in the community.

He was a blacksmith by trade and operated the first blacksmith shop in Muskingum County, Ohio. Two of his sons, Enos and Philip, and three of his grandsons, Frank, William and James, were also blacksmiths.

While living in Pennsylvania he married Mary "Polly" Yauger who was born April 15, 1794, and died January 20, 1886, aged 91 years, 9 months and 4 days. She was an unusual woman, vigorous and cheerful to the day of her death.

They were the parents of nine children, all of whom lived to be elderly. They were:

Enos, born December 6, 1816, died October 10, 1899
Philip, born February 3, 1825
Levi
Jane, born 1830
Ellinor, born 1832
Mary, born 1836
William, born 1838
Ann, born 1840

Philip became a noted blacksmith and lived all of his life on Thomas Ridge. He and Levi had large families.

ENOS THOMAS was born in Pennsylvania December 6, 1816. He moved with his parents in Ohio in 1820, but did not move with them to West Virginia. He remained in Muskingum County, Ohio, until 1878, when he moved to Phillips County, Kansas, where he homesteaded 160 acres (SW¼, sec. 33, twp. 1, range 18 west). He died October 20, 1899, and he and his wife and son James are buried in a little cemetery on the prairie south of Woodruff, Kansas.

He was a blacksmith of unusual ability. He made all of his own tools except the bellows, anvil and files. He made and tempered springs and knives, mended guns, made horseshoes and nails. In Kansas he invented and made a very successful plow to plow through the tough prairie sod.

He married Lydia Coleman, born October 24, 1820; died April 15, 1899. She was born in the Jerseys and came with her parents when she was six years old across the mountains to Ohio.

Enos and Lydia Coleman Thomas were the parents of eleven children, all born while they lived in Ohio. The children were:

Franklin, born November 23, 1840; died, July 19, 1920.
Alta
Lucy
William Henry, born Jan. 9, 1848; died Jan. 18, 1939.
Amanda, born, 1850.
John, born, 1852; died 1935.
Levi
Mary Frances, born 1854; died March 16, 1936.
James (unmarried), died of typhoid fever Feb. 29, 1886.
Samuel, died at the age of nine years.

Franklin, a veteran of the Civil War (Union Army) was a noted blacksmith in Letart, Mason County, West Virginia, all of his adult life. He married Fanny Thornton, and they were the parents of nine children.

Alta first married G. W. Young, and after his death married a man named Petty. Lucy married William Bright. Both Alta and Lucy with their children finally settled in Ohio, and their families are mostly settled there.

Amanda married John Little. They moved to Kansas in 1876, and later settled in the state of Washington.

John moved to Kansas in 1876 and went back to West Virginia in 1881. There he married Emma B. Daugherty, then moved back to Kansas and later settled in the state of Washington, where his widow died December 18, 1949, aged 83 years. His surviving children still live in the state of Washington.

Levi moved to Kansas in 1876, where he married Eva Orey. Afterward he moved to Wyoming and later to Idaho.

Mary and her husband, El Morris, moved to Kansas in 1878, back to West Virginia in 1881, and then returned to Kansas.

Margaret moved to Kansas in 1878 and later married Morgan

Daugherty from West Virginia. They later settled in Akron, Colorado, where she still lives in January, 1953.

WILLIAM HENRY THOMAS was born January 9, 1848, in Muskingum County, Ohio, and died January 18, 1939, in Coles County, Illinois. He, his wife, and son Hugh are buried in the cemetery in Letart, West Virginia.

In 1876 he with his wife and two sons, Simeon and Seth, his two unmarried brothers, John and Levi, his sister, Amanda, her husband and two children, moved to Phillips County, Kansas. In 1878 his parents, his brother, James, and sister, Margaret, and his sister Alta, her husband and children came to Phillips County, Kansas. After the failure of their crops in 1879, 1880, and 1881, due to hot winds, William, John and James moved back to Mason County, West Virginia. After his children had grown and scattered he sold his farm and moved to Charleston, Illinois, in 1919, where his sons, Simeon and Melvin, lived, and where he lived until his death in 1939.

He learned blacksmithing in his father's shop and became a highly skilled workman. He owned and operated a shop part time, doing work for his neighbors while he lived in West Virginia. He also did some carpentering. With no tools but a saw, square, auger and chisel he framed and built a heavily timbered barn and some other buildings. But he preferred an outdoor life farming and was one of the very best farmers in his community. He practiced many of the things the experts later preached. His sons still regard him as the best teacher of practical manual arts they ever knew.

William was a powerful physical man; he was six feet two inches tall, and weighed about 190 pounds. But in 1874 he developed a great ulcer on the top of his right lung cavity. The doctors did not think he could possibly live. When this broke it tore through his lung and drained through his mouth. He recovered but for seven years the scar tissue often broke and he spit blood. At one time in Kansas he was bedfast for nine months and no one but his wife believed he could get well. All during his life violent physical exercise, such as chopping with an ax, might open this scar tissue and he would spit blood. After he was 85 years old he sat up all one night and spit blood. Other than this violent type of work he could do more work than most men and had great skill in all his work.

home of her parents on Ten Mile Creek in Mason County, West Virginia.

Her father was George Washington Wilson, the son of Jacob Eli Wilson, a soldier in the war of 1812-15, whose wife was Mary Donahue. George W. Wilson was born in Lewis County, Virginia, now a part of West Virginia, on May 24, 1818, and died in Mason County, West Virginia, February 9, 1902. He settled in Mason County in 1834, when it was largely covered with heavy timber and was the home of deer, bear, wild turkey, and other wild game. He was a farmer all his life, a volunteer in the United States Army, 1861-64, Company B, West Virginia infantry, and took part in the battles of Winchester, Cedar Creek, Hurricane Bridge, Lynchburg and many other engagements. His first wife was Elizabeth Machen. They had two children: Mary married Francis Gill; Amanda married Frank Miller.

His second wife was Alcinda (Cindy) Rollins. She was the daughter of Zachariah Rollins, from Pennsylvania, a German, a teacher and a preacher. He had quite a library of books in German on theology and history; his wife's maiden name was Howell.

George W. and Alcinda Wilson had ten children:

1. Margaret Elizabeth, born September 26, 1846, died March 10, 1930; married John Lyons. Five children: Laura, Linnie, Hart, Washington and Roy.
2. Angeline, born 1848; married Richard Hayman; eight children: Stephen, Harvey, William, Charles, Mary, Martha, Ann, and Elmer.
3. Louisa Jeruah--see William Henry Thomas.
4. Lorenzo Dow, born March 14, 1852. Five Children.
5. Nancy Katharine, born March 14, 1854; married William Board; six children: Stella, Dencil, Sally, Sylvia, Charles, and Adda.
6. William married Rynda McKinney; eight children: George, Nathan, Alcinda, Eva, Charles, Lloyd, Nora and Ella.
7. Cynthia, born 1857; married John Inman; two children: Katharine, Urna.
8. Nora, born March 21, 1859; married Lee Foreman; seven children: Walter, Elsa, Pearl, Vessie, Charles, Bessie, Donald. She died in 1951.
9. Charles, born 1861; married Adda Cavet; four children: Cora, Elsie, Lon, and Cindy.

10. Philip, born 1866; married (1) Roxy Minturn; three children: Lona, Lottie, Donald; Second wife, two children: Roy and Pearl.

George W. Wilson married a third wife, Sarah Cavet; no issue.

WILLIAM H. THOMAS and his wife, LOUISA JERUAH WILSON, had six children:

Simeon, born February 6, 1872, in Ohio.
Seth, born May 18, 1873, in Ohio.
Margaret Elnora, born August 25, 1877, in Kansas.
Melvin, born May 12, 1885, in West Virginia, died
Hugh, born March 24, 1888, in West Virginia.
Cora, born June 4, 1890, in West Virginia.

While they lived in Kansas a number of things of special interest to the boys, Simeon and Seth, occurred. In the early Winter of 1876 five hundred Indians, their squaws and papooses came from a reservation farther east, out on a buffalo hunt, camped for two weeks within a half mile of their house. Some of them were in the house every day, and they hunted rabbits with the white men. The next Summer the boys heard the shooting as the U.S. Cavalry chased a war band of Indians up the other side of Prairie Dog River. While living here in a log house on a farm of 160 acres, they learned to read and write and cipher, attending school in a little log school house with a sod roof and dirt floor.

Their father and his brothers, John and Levi, bought and operated the first harvesting machine with a rake, and the first riding binder in this part of the country. The hot winds damaged their crops so much in 1879, 1880, and 1881, that their father and his brothers, John and James, moved back to West Virginia in the autumn of 1881 in their covered wagons.

William bought a farm two and a half miles out from Letart, Mason County, West Virginia. He and the two older boys farmed and worked in the blacksmith shop.

The boys attended school three or four months in the Winter and a subscription school for two short Summer terms. Their parents never kept them out of school to work but encouraged them to get all the education possible. When they quit the country school they could solve all the problems in Ray's Second, Third, and Fourth (college) books in arithmetic, and the First Book in Algebra. They were always in classes together and enjoyed studying together.

In 1889 their father took a contract to log the lumber on a 496 acre tract from which over 3,000,000 feet of lumber was cut. Simeon sometimes drove from one to four yoke of oxen, hitched to a log, dragging it to the roll ways, or drove a team of horses hauling lumber to the railroad. Seth, with a powerful little horse named John, trucked the logs from the rollways to the sawmill. In the summer of 1891 they both worked in the steel mill at Middleport, Ohio.

There was always a strong bond of affection, loyalty and co-operation in this family. The mother, a woman of rare charm, piety and good sense, made home a happy place to be. The father, a companion and skillful teacher of growing boys, taught them self-reliance, skill and pride in their work.

The two daughters married in their early twenties but the three boys postponed marriage until they had finished their university training, and they always cooperated in helping one another along.

SIMEON.

1891-92 taught the Yauger school, average attendance about 50 pupils, for four months, salary $25 a month, board and room $6 a month.

In the Spring he went to Bremer County, Iowa, and worked on a farm of Reuben Gunsalus for $20 a month with board and room.

In 1892-93 during the Winter he taught a country school at $30 a month.

In the Spring of 1893 he and John Rollins rented a 240 acre farm, but the crash of 1893 left him in debt. During the Summer of 1894 he worked on farms, paid his debts, and the last of September, with $21, walked most of the 30 miles to Fayette, Iowa, and entered Upper Iowa University. He worked his way through college, graduating in 1898, $50 in debt.

During 1898-99 he was principal of the schools in Nora Springs, Iowa. Here he met Alice Julia Riche who later became his wife. The Summer of 1899 was spent in Colorado.

1899-1902. In the Autumn of 1899 he entered the State University of Iowa at Iowa City to do graduate work. During the Christmas Vacation of 1900 Professor Shambaugh took the scarlet fever and President McClain asked him to take Professor Shambaugh's work. He carried a full professor's work until almost Commencement. He held a teaching Fellowship during 1901-02, and taught two courses in political science. In November Professor Patterson was called to New York and asked him to take his two advanced courses in economics. So for the rest of the year he had four full courses. On January 1, 1900, Seth came to the University of Iowa, and again they enjoyed the companionship of rooming together and working together for a year and a half. In 1901 he received his Master's Degree. From 1902-04 he did graduate work at Harvard University with Albert Bushnell Hart, Edward Channing, A. Lawrence Lowell, Frederick Jackson Turner, Charles Homer Haskins, and Charles Gross. He passed his general examination for the Ph. D. Degree but never finished his thesis.

1904-05 he was principle of the high school at Red Oak, Iowa.

1905-06 he was credit manager of the Thomas D. Murphy Co., Red Oak, Iowa.

In 1906-1942 he was head of the Department of the Social Sciences of the Eastern Illinois State College, retiring in 1942.

In 1934 he was elected President of the Charleston National Bank, and in 1940 active chairman of the Board of Directors, a position he continues to hold (1954).

In 1937 he was invited to deliver the baccalaureate address at Upper Iowa University and was awarded the honorary degree of L.L.D.

On March 29, 1905, he married Alice Julia Riche, the daughter of Elmer and Marion (Patterson) Riche, in Nora Springs, Iowa. Her paternal ancestors were French and English; her maternal ancesters were English. She graduated from the Fallton Piano Forte School in Boston in 1902.

SETH

1892-93 taught the Gill School, which he and his brothers and sisters has attended after the family returned to West Virginia from Kansas. The next year he was appointed a member of the Mason County Board of Examiners for teachers. During the Summer of 1893 he was elected Principal of the public schools at Mason City (now Mason), Mason County, West Virginia, which position he held for six years. While teaching at Mason he attended Summer Sessions of the Normal School at Danville, Indiana, and at the University of West Virginia in Morgantown.

He resigned his position at Mason in the Spring of 1900 and accepted a position as traveling salesman for a seed house at Independence, Iowa. During that Summer and Fall he traveled Kentucky, Ohio, and Michigan. He finished that work in time to go home in West Virginia for the Christmas Holidays. He left there then to go to Iowa City, Iowa, where he arrived at one o'clock A.M., January 1, 1901, and he has made his home in Iowa ever since. His purpose in going to Iowa was to room with his brother Simeon and to attend the University of Iowa, where Simeon was an instructor in the Department of Political Science. In the Spring of 1901 and the Fall of 1902, in addition to his work in the University, he taught the senior class in the public high school English and American Literature. But Simeon left in the Fall of 1902 to do graduate work in Harvard University, and Seth accepted the position of Principal of the High School at Washington, Iowa, where he began his work October 22, 1902. He held that position until he resigned in the Spring of 1905 and accepted the position of Principal of the High School at Fort Dodge, Iowa, which position he held until the Spring of 1909.

During the years he lived at Washington, Iowa, he attended Summer Sessions at the University of Iowa, and after resigning as principal of the High School at Fort Dodge, he returned to the University of Iowa for one year. After going to Fort Dodge in 1905 he had attended Summer Sessions at the University of Michigan where he studied law.

He was awarded the following degrees at the University of Iowa: 1904, Ph.B.; 1906, M.A.; and 1910, LL.B.

He began the practice of law in association with the firm of Healy & Healy on July 10, 1910. In connection with his practice he was Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Iowa from 1914 to 1921. He was President of the Iowa Bar Association 1931-1932. In 1933 he was appointed Solicitor of the United States Department of Agriculture, which position he held until September, 1935, when he returned to the practice of law for various periods with M. F. Healy, Robert Healy, Thomas M. Healy, and Alan Loth.

On December 2, 1935, he was appointed Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, from which position he retired on May 1, 1954.

On July 25, 1905, he and Ella May Brown were married at the Brown homestead five miles northwest of Washington, Iowa. During that Summer he worked as a statistician for the Wisconsin Tax Commission where he was associated with Professor Adams of the University of Wisconsin.

To his marriage with Ella May Brown two children were born: Eleanor, born January 8, 1907, and Reynolds Brown, March 22, 1915. Ella died February 7, 1939, and he married Eloise Stuckslager on February 11, 1941.

At the One Hundredth Anniverary of the founding of the State University of Iowa during the 1947 Commencement Week Exercises in Iowa City, he was one of the 50 living Alumni given special recognition by the University.

In May, 1949, at the banquet held during the annual meeting of the Iowa State Bar Association, he was presented with a gold plate by the Association for his services as a member of the Iowa Bar.

MELVIN

Born in West Virginia on May 12, 1885, after the family had returned from Kansas, Melvin received his elementary education in the old Gill school house about two and a half miles from Letart in West Virginia. He spent one year at Marshall College in Huntington, West Virginia. After teaching near the home place for about a year he came to Illinois where he entered the University of Illinois in 1909, graduating in 1914. He earned a good share of his expenses working on soil survey work in that State. He was elected a member of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific fraternity, and of Epsilon Sigma Phi, honorary agricultural fraternity. He was a member of the faculty of North Dakota Agricultural College from 1914 to 1918, when he returned to Illinois to become Farm Adviser in Coles County, which position he held from 1918 to 1934. He was Secretary of the Charleston National Farm Loan Association from 1923 to 1937; State Senator from the 34th District from 1936 to 1940; and Vice-President of the Central National Bank, Mattoon, Illinois, from 1940 to 1942.

Not being a very good writer have done as best as I have been told, and as I remember, and the dates and names, came mostly out of the cemetery records of Mason Co., so Juanita K. Burdette, Violette S. Machir, and all the people who helped gather the information for your #1-2-3, and 4 Volumes, I thank you.

Also, I want to thank Patricia and Pamela Thomas, my granddaughters for typing this record of Levi and Mary Yauger Thomas.

All My Mama's

All of my mama's, and all of my papa's too, are from the mountains of West Virginia. My earliest immigrant ancestor came to Virginia about 1620, this was the Meadows line. In 1630 one group got too far north landing in the Mass. Bay Colony with the Winthrop Fleet, but that was corrected when the first Knapp came to Virginia about 1795. These pages will list six generations of each of my four grandparents. I have more on some of them including the Clendenin line which goes back to Robert the Bruce. This is me in Uncle Don's new golf hat which he got for Christmas in 1998.

Sandy

Jacob Plants and Nancy Cooper

Some of my ancestors were in western Virginia by the late 1700s, but some, like PLANTS and COOPER went first to Pennsylvania, and then moved from Washington Co., Penna to Mason Co., VA/WVA about 1850. This is the grave stone we erected for Jacob Plants and Nancy Jane Cooper a few years ago. They farmed this land and lived into their 80s. We have a reunion every June.

Jacob Plants and Nancy Cooper

I have over 18,000 people in my database, most from WV. Many are distant lines and I don't have much on them. I have my own lines, my daughter's lines, and extensive information on my three step-fathers [it's a long story]. This is my daughter in 1995 at the grave of Christian PLANTS, son of Jacob and Nancy. The PLANTS, COOPERS, EDWARDS, & MEADOWS all lived out on Ten Mile Creek near Leon, in Mason Co., WV.

This history of Levi Thomas and his wife, Mary Yauger Thomas, their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Although not quite complete it will serve as a guide to future generations. I have been unable to get information on Levi's father, brothers, or sisters. Only that he was born in Virginia, June 27--1793, and that he was married to Mary Yauger, on November 16--1814, in Alegheny Co. Pa., and that two of his children, Elizabeth, born 5-3-1815, and Enos, born 12-6-1816, were born in Alegheny Co. Pa., then they moved to Meigs, Ohio, in * Muskingum Co. where he operated a blacksmith shop and the other children were born. Then my grandfather, Philip Thomas, brought the whole family to West Virginia, or Virginia at that time, where Philip bought 210 acres for $300.00 on what is know as Thomas Ridge, Cooper district, Mason Co., the Deed to the land is dated 1855.

Dear Cousin Allen:

Thank you for your interesting letter of November 17th. Back in 1954 my Uncle Simeon wrote a family history of the Thomas family, and a copy of it is enclosed.. There are several discrepancies between the dates in the enclosed history and those listed in your letter regarding the children of Levi Thomas.. I have noted the changes on the enclosure. Both my father and Uncle Simeon tried hard to find out the names of the parents of Levi Thomas but were unsuccessful. If you are ever able to learn their names I would appreciate knowing them.

Most sincerely,

LEVI THOMAS was born in Virginia (census return of 1860) on May 27, 1793, and died in Mason County, West Virginia, on December 23, 1864. He was buried in the cemetery at Eckard Chapel between Point Pleasant and Flat Rock.

He moved from Virginia to Pennsylvania and then to the town of Meigs in Muskingum County, Ohio, in 1820. Later he moved to Mason County, West Virginia, and settled on Thomas Ridge, so known because so many of his children and grandchildren settled in the community.

He was a blacksmith by trade and operated the first blacksmith shop in Muskingum County, Ohio. Two of his sons, Enos and Philip, and three of his grandsons, Frank, William and James, were also blacksmiths.

While living in Pennsylvania he married Mary "Polly" Yauger who was born April 15, 1794, and died January 20, 1886, aged 91 years, 9 months and 4 days. She was an unusual woman, vigorous and cheerful to the day of her death.

They were the parents of nine children, all of whom lived to be elderly. They were:

Enos, born December 6, 1816, died October 10, 1899
Philip, born February 3, 1825
Levi
Jane, born 1830
Ellinor, born 1832
Mary, born 1836
William, born 1838
Ann, born 1840

Philip became a noted blacksmith and lived all of his life on Thomas Ridge. He and Levi had large families.

ENOS THOMAS was born in Pennsylvania December 6, 1816. He moved with his parents in Ohio in 1820, but did not move with them to West Virginia. He remained in Muskingum County, Ohio, until 1878, when he moved to Phillips County, Kansas, where he homesteaded 160 acres (SW$\frac{1}{4}$, sec. 33, twp. 1, range 18 west). He died October 20, 1899, and he and his wife and son James are buried in a little cemetery on the prairie south of Woodruff, Kansas.

He was a blacksmith of unusual ability. He made all of his own tools except the bellows, anvil and files. He made and tempered springs and knives, mended guns, made horseshoes and nails. In Kansas he invented and made a very successful plow to plow through the tough prairie sod.

He married Lydia Coleman, born October 24, 1820; died April 15, 1899. She was born in the Jerseys and came with her parents when she was six years old across the mountains to Ohio.

Enos and Lydia Coleman Thomas were the parents of eleven children, all born while they lived in Ohio. The children were:

Franklin, born November 23, 1840; died, July 19, 1920.
Alta
Lucy
William Henry, born Jan. 9, 1848; died Jan. 18, 1939.
Amanda, born, 1850.
John, born, 1852; died 1935.
Levi
Mary Frances, born 1854; died March 16, 1936.
James (unmarried), died of typhoid fever Feb. 29, 1886.
Samuel, died at the age of nine years.

Franklin, a veteran of the Civil War (Union Army) was a noted blacksmith in Letart, Mason County, West Virginia, all of his adult life. He married Fanny Thornton, and they were the parents of nine children.

Alta first married G. W. Young, and after his death married a man named Petty. Lucy married William Bright. Both Alta and Lucy with their children finally settled in Ohio, and their families are mostly settled there.

Amanda married John Little. They moved to Kansas in 1876, and later settled in the state of Washington.

John moved to Kansas in 1876 and went back to West Virginia in 1881. There he married Emma B. Daugherty, then moved back to Kansas and later settled in the state of Washington, where his widow died December 18, 1949, aged 83 years. His surviving children still live in the state of Washington.

Levi moved to Kansas in 1876, where he married Eva Orey. Afterward he moved to Wyoming and later to Idaho.

Mary and her husband, El Morris, moved to Kansas in 1878, back to West Virginia in 1881, and then returned to Kansas.

Margaret moved to Kansas in 1878 and later married Morgan

Daugherty from West Virginia. They later settled in Akron, Colorado, where she still lives in January, 1953.

WILLIAM HENRY THOMAS was born January 9, 1848, in Muskingum County, Ohio, and died January 18, 1939, in Coles County, Illinois. He, his wife, and son Hugh are buried in the cemetery in Letart, West Virginia.

In 1876 he with his wife and two sons, Simeon and Seth, his two unmarried brothers, John and Levi, his sister, Amanda, her husband and two children, moved to Phillips County, Kansas. In 1878 his parents, his brother, James, and sister, Margaret, and his sister Alta, her husband and children came to Phillips County, Kansas. After the failure of their crops in 1879, 1880, and 1881, due to hot winds, William, John and James moved back to Mason County, West Virginia. After his children had grown and scattered he sold his farm and moved to Charleston, Illinois, in 1919, where his sons, Simeon and Melvin, lived, and where he lived until his death in 1939.

He learned blacksmithing in his father's shop and became a highly skilled workman. He owned and operated a shop part time, doing work for his neighbors while he lived in West Virginia. He also did some carpentering. With no tools but a saw, square, auger and chisel he framed and built a heavily timbered barn and some other buildings. But he preferred an outdoor life farming and was one of the very best farmers in his community. He practiced many of the things the experts later preached. His sons still regard him as the best teacher of practical manual arts they ever knew.

William was a powerful physical man; he was six feet two inches tall, and weighed about 190 pounds. But in 1874 he developed a great ulcer on the top of his right lung cavity. The doctors did not think he could possibly live. When this broke it tore through his lung and drained through his mouth. He recovered but for seven years the scar tissue often broke and he spit blood. At one time in Kansas he was bedfast for nine months and no one but his wife believed he could get well. All during his life violent physical exercise, such as chopping with an ax, might open this scar tissue and he would spit blood. After he was 85 years old he sat up all one night and spit blood. Other than this violent type of work he could do more work than most men and had great skill in all his work.

He married Louisa Jeruah Wilson on January 22, 1871, in the home of her parents on Ten Mile Creek in Mason County, West Virginia.

Her father was George Washington Wilson, the son of Jacob Eli Wilson, a soldier in the war of 1812-15, whose wife was Mary Donahue. George W. Wilson was born in Lewis County, Virginia, now a part of West Virginia, on May 24, 1818, and died in Mason County, West Virginia, February 9, 1902. He settled in Mason County in 1834, when it was largely covered with heavy timber and was the home of deer, bear, wild turkey, and other wild game. He was a farmer all his life, a volunteer in the United States Army, 1861-64, Company B, West Virginia infantry, and took part in the battles of Winchester, Cedar Creek, Hurricane Bridge, Lynchburg and many other engagements. His first wife was Elizabeth Machen. They had two children: Mary married Francis Gill; Amanda married Frank Miller.

His second wife was Alcinda (Cindy) Rollins. She was the daughter of Zachariah Rollins, from Pennsylvania, a German, a teacher and a preacher. He had quite a library of books in German on theology and history; his wife's maiden name was Howell.

George W. and Alcinda Wilson had ten children:

1. Margaret Elizabeth, born September 26, 1846, died March 10, 1930; married John Lyons. Five children: Laura, Linnie, Hart, Washington and Roy.
2. Angeline, born 1848; married Richard Hayman; eight children: Stephen, Harvey, William, Charles, Mary, Martha, Ann, and Elmer.
3. Louisa Jeruah--see William Henry Thomas.
4. Lorenzo Dow, born March 14, 1852. Five Children:
5. Nancy Katharine, born March 14, 1854; married William Board; six children: Stella, Dencil, Sally, Sylvia, Charles, and Adda.
6. William married Rynda McKinney; eight children: George, Nathan, Alcinda, Eva, Charles, Lloyd, Nora and Ella.
7. Cynthia, born 1857; married John Inman; two children: Katharine, Urna.
8. Nora, born March 21, 1859; married Lee Foreman; seven children: Walter, Elsa, Pearl, Vessie, Charles, Bessie, Donald. She died in 1951.
9. Charles, born 1861; married Adda Cavet; four children: Cora, Elsie, Lon, and Cindy.

10. Philip, born 1866; married (1) Roxy Minturn; three children: Lona, Lottie, Donald; Second wife, two children: Roy and Pearl.

George W. Wilson married a third wife, Sarah Cavet; no issue.

WILLIAM H. THOMAS and his wife, LOUISA JERUAH WILSON, had six children:

Simeon, born February 6, 1872, in Ohio.
Seth, born May 18, 1873, in Ohio.
Margaret Elnora, born August 25, 1877, in Kansas.
Melvin, born May 12, 1885, in West Virginia, died
Hugh, born March 24, 1888, in West Virginia.
Cora, born June 4, 1890, in West Virginia.

While they lived in Kansas a number of things of special interest to the boys, Simeon and Seth, occurred. In the early Winter of 1876 five hundred Indians, their squaws and papooses came from a reservation farther east, out on a buffalo hunt, camped for two weeks within a half mile of their house. Some of them were in the house every day, and they hunted rabbits with the white men. The next Summer the boys heard the shooting as the U.S. Cavalry chased a war band of Indians up the other side of Prairie Dog River. While living here in a log house on a farm of 160 acres, they learned to read and write and cipher, attending school in a little log school house with a sod roof and dirt floor.

Their father and his brothers, John and Levi, bought and operated the first harvesting machine with a rake, and the first riding binder in this part of the country. The hot winds damaged their crops so much in 1879, 1880, and 1881, that their father and his brothers, John and James, moved back to West Virginia in the autumn of 1881 in their covered wagons.

William bought a farm two and a half miles out from Letart, Mason County, West Virginia. He and the two older boys farmed and worked in the blacksmith shop.

The boys attended school three or four months in the Winter and a subscription school for two short Summer terms. Their parents never kept them out of school to work but encouraged them to get all the education possible. When they quit the country school they could solve all the problems in Ray's Second, Third, and Fourth (college) books in arithmetic, and the First Book in Algebra. They were always in classes together and enjoyed studying together.

In 1889 their father took a contract to log the lumber on a 496 acre tract from which over 3,000,000 feet of lumber was cut. Simeon sometimes drove from one to four yoke of oxen, hitched to a log, dragging it to the roll ways, or drove a team of horses hauling lumber to the railroad. Seth, with a powerful little horse named John, trucked the logs from the rollways to the sawmill. In the summer of 1891 they both worked in the steel mill at Middleport, Ohio.

There was always a strong bond of affection, loyalty and co-operation in this family. The mother, a woman of rare charm, piety and good sense, made home a happy place to be. The father, a companion and skillful teacher of growing boys, taught them self-reliance, skill and pride in their work.

The two daughters married in their early twenties but the three boys postponed marriage until they had finished their university training, and they always cooperated in helping one another along.

SIMEON.

1891-92 taught the Yauger school, average attendance about 50 pupils, for four months, salary $25 a month, board and room $6 a month.

In the Spring he went to Bremer County, Iowa, and worked on a farm of Reuben Gunsalus for $20 a month with board and room.

In 1892-93 during the Winter he taught a country school at $30 a month.

In the Spring of 1893 he and John Rollins rented a 240 acre farm, but the crash of 1893 left him in debt. During the Summer of 1894 he worked on farms, paid his debts, and the last of September, with $21, walked most of the 30 miles to Fayette, Iowa, and entered Upper Iowa University. He worked his way through college, graduating in 1898, $50 in debt.

During 1898-99 he was principal of the schools in Nora Springs, Iowa. Here he met Alice Julia Riche who later became his wife. The Summer of 1899 was spent in Colorado.

1899-1902. In the Autumn of 1899 he entered the State University of Iowa at Iowa City to do graduate work. During the Christmas Vacation of 1900 Professor Shambaugh took the scarlet fever and President McClain asked him to take Professor Shambaugh's work. He carried a full professor's work until almost Commencement. He held a teaching Fellowship during 1901-02, and taught two courses in political science. In November Professor Patterson was called to New York and asked him to take his two advanced courses in economics. So for the rest of the year he had four full courses. On January 1, 1900, Seth came to the University of Iowa, and again they enjoyed the companionship of rooming together and working together for a year and a half. In 1901 he received his Master's Degree. From 1902-04 he did graduate work at Harvard University with Albert Bushnell Hart, Edward Channing, A. Lawrence Lowell, Frederick Jackson Turner, Charles Homer Haskins, and Charles Gross. He passed his general examination for the Ph. D. Degree but never finished his thesis.

1904-05 he was principle of the high school at Red Oak, Iowa..

1905-06 he was credit manager of the Thomas D. Murphy Co., Red Oak, Iowa.

In 1906-1942 he was head of the Department of the Social Sciences of the Eastern Illinois State College, retiring in 1942.

In 1934 he was elected President of the Charleston National Bank, and in 1940 active chairman of the Board of Directors, a position he continues to hold (1954).

In 1937 he was invited to deliver the baccalaureate address at Upper Iowa University and was awarded the honorary degree of L.L.D.

On March 29, 1905, he married Alice Julia Riche, the daughter of Elmer and Marion (Patterson) Riche, in Nora Springs, Iowa. Her paternal ancestors were French and English; her maternal ancesters were English. She graduated from the Fallton Piano Forte School in Boston in 1902.

SETH

1892-93 taught the Gill School, which he and his brothers and sisters has attended after the family returned to West Virginia from Kansas. The next year he was appointed a member of the Mason County Board of Examiners for teachers. During the Summer of 1893 he was elected Principal of the public schools at Mason City (now Mason), Mason County, West Virginia, which position he held for six years. While teaching at Mason he attended Summer Sessions of the Normal School at Danville, Indiana, and at the University of West Virginia in Morgantown.

He resigned his position at Mason in the Spring of 1900 and accepted a position as traveling salesman for a seed house at Independence, Iowa. During that Summer and Fall he traveled Kentucky, Ohio, and Michigan. He finished that work in time to go home in West Virginia for the Christmas Holidays. He left there then to go to Iowa City, Iowa, where he arrived at one o'clock A.M., January 1, 1901, and he has made his home in Iowa ever since. His purpose in going to Iowa was to room with his brother Simeon and to attend the University of Iowa, where Simeon was an instructor in the Department of Political Science. In the Spring of 1901 and the Fall of 1902, in addition to his work in the University, he taught the senior class in the public high school English and American Literature. But Simeon left in the Fall of 1902 to do graduate work in Harvard University, and Seth accepted the position of Principal of the High School at Washington, Iowa, where he began his work October 22, 1902. He held that position until he resigned in the Spring of 1905 and accepted the position of Principal of the High School at Fort Dodge, Iowa, which position he held until the Spring of 1909.

During the years he lived at Washington, Iowa, he attended Summer Sessions at the University of Iowa, and after resigning as principal of the High School at Fort Dodge, he returned to the University of Iowa for one year. After going to Fort Dodge in 1905 he had attended Summer Sessions at the University of Michigan where he studied law.

He was awarded the following degrees at the University of Iowa: 1904, Ph.B.; 1906, M.A.; and 1910, LL.B.

He began the practice of law in association with the firm of Healy & Healy on July 10, 1910. In connection with his practice he was Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Iowa from 1914 to 1921. He was President of the Iowa Bar Association 1931-1932. In 1933 he was appointed Solicitor of the United States Department of Agriculture, which position he held until September, 1935, when he returned to the practice of law for various periods with M. F. Healy, Robert Healy, Thomas M. Healy, and Allan Loth.

On December 2, 1935, he was appointed Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, from which position he retired on May 1, 1954.

On July 25, 1905, he and Ella May Brown were married at the Brown homestead five miles northwest of Washington, Iowa. During that Summer he worked as a statistician for the Wisconsin Tax Commission where he was associated with Professor Adams of the University of Wisconsin.

To his marriage with Ella May Brown two children were born: Eleanor, born January 8, 1907, and Reynolds Brown, March 22, 1915. Ella died February 7, 1939, and he married Eloise Stuckslager on February 11, 1941.

At the One Hundredth Anniverary of the founding of the State University of Iowa during the 1947 Commencement Week Exercises in Iowa City, he was one of the 50 living Alumni given special recognition by the University.

In May, 1949, at the banquet held during the annual meeting of the Iowa State Bar Association, he was presented with a gold plate by the Association for his services as a member of the Iowa Bar.

MELVIN

Born in West Virginia on May 12, 1885, after the family had returned from Kansas, Melvin received his elementary education in the old Gill school house about two and a half miles from Letart in West Virginia. He spent one year at Marshall College in Huntington, West Virginia. After teaching near the home place for about a year he came to Illinois where he entered the University of Illinois in 1909, graduating in 1914. He earned a good share of his expenses working on soil survey work in that State. He was elected a member of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific fraternity, and of Epsilon Sigma Phi, honorary agricultural fraternity. He was a member of the faculty of North Dakota Agricultural College from 1914 to 1918, when he returned to Illinois to become Farm Adviser in Coles County, which position he held from 1918 to 1934. He was Secretary of the Charleston National Farm Loan Association from 1923 to 1937; State Senator from the 34th District from 1936 to 1940; and Vice-President of the Central National Bank, Mattoon, Illinois, from 1940 to 1942.

He was married to Margery H. Scriven of Beloit, Wisconsin, on October 6, 1915. To them were born six children: Robert Osborne, September 1, 1916; William Wilson, July 19, 1918; Helen Jean, September 29, 1919; Margery Beth, July 9, 1922; Charles Richard, September 13, 1927; and Donald Scriven, November 28, 1929.

Melvin died on January 31, 1942, as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident a few days earlier, and is buried in the cemetery at Charleston, Illinois.

Not being a very good writer have done as best as I have been told, and as I remember, and the dates and names, came mostly out of the cemetery records of Mason Co., so Juanita K. Burdette, Violette S. Machir, and all the people who helped gather the information for your #1-2-3, and 4 Volumes, I thank you.

Also, I want to thank Patricia and Pamela Thomas, my granddaughters for typing this record of Levi and Mary Yauger Thomas.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

"Our Father which art in Heaven, hollowed by Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will we done, on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen."

Mrs. Margaret Ann (Jones) Harp, 82, widow of Mr. Thomas Harp, Jr. and longtime Bartlesville resident, died at 8:40 p.m. on Sunday in Bartlesville.

Harp

Memorial services for Mrs. Harp will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday in the Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church of Bartlesville. Rev. Dale Scott will be the officiant. Private family committal prayers and interment will be directed at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday in the Memorial Park Cemetery by The Arnold Moore Funeral Service.

A memorial has been established and those who wish may forward their gifts to the Oklahoma Special Olympics, 6835 S. Canton Ave., Tulsa, Okla. 74136.

Margaret Ann Harp will lie in state in the Drawing Rooms of The Arnold Moore Funeral Service where friends may call for their visitation until she is removed for final rites on Thursday morning.

Margaret Ann Jones was born July 16, 1923 at Wichita, Kansas She was the daughter of Jean Paul Jones and Mona Lee (Willis) Jones. Margaret was reared in Wichita and began her education there before moving to Chicago, Illinois and returned to Wichita where she was graduated with the Senior Class of 1941 from the Wichita High School, and continued her education in Wichita where she studied Home Economics. She married Thomas Harold Harp, Jr. on June 6, 1943 at Wichita and they made their first home in Neosho, Missouri. They traveled extensively with Mr. Harp's military career having residences in New York, Washington, DC, and Oakland, Calif. where Mr. Harp was retired from the U. S. Signal Corps in 1946. They returned to Wichita and Mr. Harp began his employment with Phillips Petroleum Co. They came to Bartlesville in 1951 and had remained residents since that time. Mr. Harp preceded her in death on November 10, 2000, and Margaret had remained a resident of Bartlesville living in retirement.

She was a member of the Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church, Church Women United, Bartlesville Genealogy Society, Bartlesville Little Theater, the Organ Guild, an active member of the church choir, was an elder and deacon in the church, and had served as the first female Moderator of the Synod of the Sun which covers the four state area of Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana. She had also been a volunteer with the Concern Child Care Center in Bartlesville as well as an avid bridge player.

Surviving are a son and daughter-in-law Rev. Thomas and Carol Harp, Naples Florida; two daughters and sons-in-law, Mrs. Ann K. "Kathy" and Charles Sornson, Alamo, Texas and Mrs. Nancy L. and David Smith, Owasso, Okla.; eight grandchildren; two great grandchildren; a brother, J. Elmore Jones, Rochester, New York; and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kimberlee Harp, Coffeyville, Kansas. In addition to her husband, father and mother, she was preceded in death by a son, Norman on February 2, 2004 and a brother, Jarvis L. Jones.

Died 15 Jan 2006

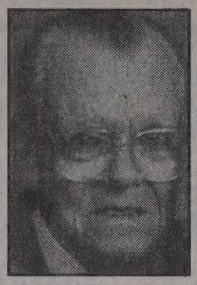
Thomas H. Harp Jr.

Thomas Harold Harp Jr., 82, a 49-year Bartlesville resident, died at 5:45 p.m. Friday in the Jane Phillips Medical Center following an extended illness.

Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Tuesday in the sanctuary of the Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church with the Revs. Dale P. Scott and Ray Hickman officiating. Family committal prayers and interment will be directed at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Memorial Park Cemetery by the Arnold Moore Funeral Service.



Harp

Visitation will be in the drawing rooms of the Arnold Moore Funeral Residence on Sunday and Monday.

A memorial has been established to the Oklahoma Special Olympics, 6835 South Canton Ave., Tulsa, OK 74136-3429.

A native of Woodward, Harp was born July 7, 1918 to Thomas Harold Sr. and Amanda Ellen (Berrian) Harp. He received his education in the Woodward and Tulsa schools, later moving with his family to Chicago, Ill., and returned to Wichita, Kan., where he graduated from North High School in 1936. He continued his education at the Friends University in Wichita, Kan. During World War II, he enlisted in 1940 and was assigned to the infantry.

He and the former Margaret Ann Jones were married in Wichita on June 6, 1943. They made their first home in Neosho, Mo.

During his military service, the couple transferred to New York City, N.Y., Washington D.C., and Oakland, Calif., until he honorably retired with the rank of Major in December 1945 from the United States Army Signal Corps.

The Harp family returned to Wichita where he was employed with the Phillips Petroleum Co. The family moved to Bartlesville in 1951 where Harp was affiliated with Applied Automation until his retirement on July 7, 1979. They have continued their home here.

Harp was a charter member of the Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church where he served as an elder and sang in the choir. He was a former member of the Limestone Lions Club and a longtime member of the Bartlesville Amateur Radio Club, the Washington County Historical Society and the Bartlesville Genealogical Society. He had sung in the Coffeyville Community Chorus for three years and was a volunteer for Meals on Wheels.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret Ann (Jones), of the home here; two sons and daughters-in-law, Thomas Paul and Carol of Naples, Fla., and Norman Earl and Kimberlee of Coffeyville, Kan.; two daughters and sons-in-law, Nancy Lee and David Smith of Owasso and Ann Kathleen and Charles Sevy of Weslaco, Texas; and eight grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

CARDIN'S CROSSING

Bed & Breakfast & Apple Pie

Welcome to our country home & traditional bed & breakfast.

We're located in Old Town Chama, New Mexico just 1 block from the historic Cumbres & Toltec Scenic RR station.

It's hard to believe that this charming and elegant country house is a large 9 room custom designed and custom built, manufactured home. The huge Victorian front porch is a perfect get-away spot for bird watching or thunder storm watching at any time of day. Hummingbirds visit the cottage gardens and feeders in great numbers May to September. Enjoy your evening apple pie on the Patio Deck by the crackling fire.

Our hospitality is unsurpassed and we specialize in pampering our guests! Chat with us as we prepare a delicious gourmet breakfast for you in our sociable country kitchen. Everything is homemade by Chefs Tom and Mary.

Your Hosts, Tom and Mary Cardin, are Chama's most artistic couple. Tom's photographs and Mary's paintings grace the walls of the entire house. Original paintings, prints and Mary's original Wearable Art are all available for sale to our guests here and in local galleries. Cardin's Crossing is available for painting and sewing retreats and classes can be arranged.

Shopping and dining is just a short 1 block stroll from Cardin's Crossing.

NARROW GAUGE ROOM: Queen Bed & Private Bath.

The rail fan's room. All railroad decor, handmade quilts and antiques featuring an elevated G Gauge train, built by Tom, which guests may operate by remote control during their stay.

DOLL HOUSE ROOM & SUITE: Full (double size) Canopy Bed & Private Bath.

Decorated in country Victorian antiques with porcelain dolls, handmade quilts and a Victorian Doll House, built by Tom. Two additional guests can be accommodated in the adjoining Sewing Room.

MATRONS OF THE REVOLUTION.

HANNAH TIFFANY SWETLAND.

Hannah Tiffany, dau. of Thomas Tiffany, was born July 15, 1740, in Lebanon, Windham county, Conn. She married April 1, 1762, Luke Swetland, and they settled in Wyoming, in the year 1776. Here, harrassed not only by the marauding Indians, but by the Pennamites, who sought to dispossess the Connecticut settlers, there was considerable hardship and suffering. Not only were the necessaries of life, but powder and lead, so necessary for their protection, scant; and it is not surprising that, to the women especially, were the settlers indebted for assistance in securing these. "Justice," says Mr. Miner, "demands a tribute to the praiseworthy spirit of the wives and daughters of Wyoming. While their husbands and fathers were on public duty they cheerfully assumed a large portion of the labor, which females could do. They assisted to plant, make hay, husked and garnered corn. As the settlement was mainly dependent on its own resources for powder, Mr. Hollenback caused to be brought up the river a pounder, and the women took up their floors, dug out the earth, put it in casks, and ran water through it—as ashes are leached—took ashes in another cask and made lye, mixed the water from the earth with weak lye, boiled it, set it to cool, and the salt-peter rose to the top. Charcoal and sulphur were then used, and powder produced for the public defense!" Mrs. Swetland vied with her neighbors in the performance of these duties.

When, in the spring of 1778, danger threatened the Wyoming settlement, Mr. Swetland hastened his wife and little ones to their friends in Connecticut, keeping his oldest son of fifteen years with him. They were both in Forty Fort at the time of the massacre, but both escaped. Some weeks after, however, Mr. Swetland was taken prisoner by the Indians and remained in captivity until the year following. In the meantime, the anxious wife and mother remained in Connecticut, only returning to Wyoming upon the declaration of peace. She was a notable woman, patriotic as well as philanthropic, and the evening of her days was spent in the satisfaction of a life of domestic enjoyment. She died on the Swetland farm, January 8, 1809.

Luke Swetland, son of William Swetland, was born in Kent, Litchfield county, Conn., June 16th, 1729. Of his early life we know little, save that he was brought up as a farmer, and resided on the old homestead in Litchfield county until he joined the early settlers in Wyoming. He signed the "agreement of June 29, 1776," and by the advice of the proprietors' committee "pitched" on land some thirty miles above Wyoming, near Mehoopany. In the Winter of 1777, Luke Swetland was a private in Captain Durkee's independent company of patriots, encamped at Morristown, N. J., having enlisted Sept. 17, 1776. Owing to threatened dangers at home, he was discharged Jan. 8, 1778, and returned at once to Wyoming. As stated before, his family was sent to Connecticut, and, owing to some disability, he was in Forty Fort at the time of the massacre and did not participate in the engagement. Subsequently, on the 25th of August, 1778, he was captured with a neighbor, Joseph Blanchard, by the Indians at the mouth of Fishing Creek, and remained for a considerable period a prisoner at different Seneca villages in the State of New York. Says Miner, "a man of ardent piety, the confidence and hope imparted by religion sustained him. To trace his weary days of captivity would be but a repetition of ever-recurring sorrows. After having failed in several attempts to escape, he was at length rescued by our army under

-On the third of October, 1794, dur-rection in Western Pennsylvania, the President of the United States, Gen. Washington, reached Harrisburg, on his way westward, to take command of the army then gathering at Carlisle and Fort Cumberland. Everything connected with this great and good man is of course interesting, and hence the earnest desire to know where he remained during that brief sojourn in Harrisburg. Our local histories, as also the old time directories which proposed to give a summary of the historic events transpiring at Harrisburg, all differ as to where the chief magistrate was quartered. Twenty-five years ago there were yet living a number of old citizens who, although youths, ought surely to have remembered where Washington was entertained. Their memories, however, were treacherous, for they too differed, one locating him at a tavern which was not a tavern for ten years subsequent. Strange enough, the only newspaper Harrisburg then had, the Oracle of Dauphin, is especially silent as to whose hospitality he received. But then most papers in those days did not chronicle affairs so minutely as is done to-day, or else latter day historians would not be so frequently befogged.

Recently, in looking over some letters written at the time, a gentleman to whom we are indebted for much valuable information, came across a sentence which leads us to infer that President Washington was the guest of Hon. Wm. Maclay, the first Senator from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States. The letter states that he dined with Mr. Maclay." The latter gentleman did not reside within the limits of Harrisburg. His residence, although at the northwest corner of Front and South streets, was beyond the borough and no doubt then considered as "some distance from the town." Mr. Maclay had frequently dined with Washington, was on intimate terms, and there is little doubt that in addition to dining at the Maclay mansion, he lodged there also. That building has become an historic one, and we trust that it may be properly preserved for centuries. We shall refer to this subject at another time.

COL. TIMOTHY GREEN'S BATTALION IN THE REVOLUTION.—III.

Captain James Rodgers, whose company follows, was a native of Hanover township, born in 1735. His father located on the Manada prior to 1730, and left a large family of children. James seems to have been quite prominent on the frontiers, was a member of the Hanover congregation, a non-commissioned officer during the French and Indian wars, and at the outset of the American Revolution became an ardent patriot. He raised a company of Associators and during the struggle for Independence was quite active. He died on the 18th of April, 1790, and is buried in Hanover church graveyard.

James Wilson, First Lieutenant, is to be distinguished from the other James Wilsons as Capt. James Wilson. He died in October, 1806, well advanced in years. He is buried in Hanover.

Henry McCormick, Second Lieutenant, was born in Hanover. He evidently died about the close of the Revolution, leaving sons, William, Henry, David and daughters Isabella and Mary.

Andrew Rodgers, Third Lieutenant, was a brother of Capt. James Rodgers. He was born in Hanover in 1745, and died on the 19th of September, 1782.

The fourth Lieutenant, Robert Martain or Martin, was the son of John Martin, one of the earliest settlers on the Manada. He died about 1805.

The descendants of the foregoing officers as also of the majority of the privates, are scattered over the various States of the Union.

Denizations and Naturalizations in the British Colonies in America, 1607–1775

Lloyd deWitt Bockstruck

Introduction

The status of English colonists who left the Mother Country to settle in North America became an important issue after the founding of the British Empire at Jamestown in 1607. The English took the position that colonists did not forfeit their status as citizens and that children born in the colonies were on an equal footing with those born in England.

The colonial charters provided that ". . . all and every the Persons being our Subjects, which shall dwell and inhabit within every or any the said several Colonies and Plantations, and every of their children, which shall happen to be born within any of the Limits and Precincts of the said several Colonies and Plantations, shall HAVE and enjoy all Liberties, Franchises, and Immunities, within any of our other Dominions, to all Intents and Purposes, as if they had been abiding and born, within this our Realm of England, or any other of our said Dominions."[1]

The American colonies from the beginning needed settlers for military security, economic prosperity, and population growth. Since there were not enough English colonists to fulfill these demands, the English colonies had to invite foreigners to do so. Since some of the colonists were non-English, the question of citizenship arose early in the American colonial experience. Many aliens sought citizenship before leaving England. Still others sought an English grant after their arrival.

There were two avenues to English citizenship available. One was naturalization; the other was denization. In England, Parliament could grant the former by private act; the King could grant the latter by letters patent. Naturalization was more costly for the alien, but it did convey a higher status and more rights. Because it was more difficult to qualify for parliamentary naturalizations than royal denizations, aliens often opted to be endenized. Because denizations were granted by letters patent, however, they could be withdrawn by the authority that issued them. Colonial governors and legislative assemblies followed the pattern of their counterparts in England. There was also a third means of becoming an English subject in the New World. It was by the annexation of former colonies of other European powers, as in the case of the acquisition of New Netherland (which earlier had absorbed New Sweden), Acadia, Quebec, East Florida, and West Florida. In conjunction with annexation there may have been additional requirements such as oaths of allegiance.

In the colonial period both denization and naturalization conferred civil but not political rights. They primarily involved the ownership and transfer of realty. Denization conferred limited rights of inheritance, but naturalization was complete. A denizen was allowed to buy and devise land while an alien could not. Neither an alien nor any of his children could inherit land. He could not hold any office of trust or receive grants of land from the Crown. In most cases suffrage was not connected to either. In the event that an alien who had been endenized died intestate with a born prior to his denization and a son born after it, the younger son would inherit father's land because the father had no inheritable blood to communicate to his fi born son. If the father instead had opted to be naturalized, his eldest son would h been his heir because naturalization had retrospective energy.

It should be noted that Jews were admitted to English colonies in the New W earlier than in England. Under Cromwell Jews could gain legal entry into Englan 1655. In many of the records they are identified by religion. In others, howe their identity is more subtly revealed. Whereas Christians subscribed to oaths of legiance or affirmed when it was appropriate by placing their hand on the Bi Jews did so by placing their hand on the Old Testament. The sacred text, theref indicated their religion.

The first instance of a blanket policy of denization for aliens was the 1681 nouncement by King Charles II granting the Huguenot refugees denization with charge. Some of the refugees sought denizations or naturalizations in England bef leaving for the colonies. Such action gave them imperial status. One of the earl such examples was Nicholas Martiau who came to Jamestown, Virginia in the spr of 1620.[2] The earliest example of a stranger being admitted to citizenship in colonies was that of George Hacke in 1653 in Northampton County, Virginia.

On 18 January 1699/1700 by an order-in-council, the English government ban the granting of denizations in the colonies by governors unless expressly authori to do so in their commissions. By the statute of 11 and 12 William III, all pers being natural-born subjects of the king could inherit from ancestors, lineal and c lateral, even though their forebear was born out of the king's allegiance.

In 1709 Parliament provided for naturalization in both a timely and inexpens manner. Applicants had to take and subscribe the oaths of allegiance and suprem and to disavow the Roman Catholic doctrine of transubstantiation in open court. the same time they had to present proof that they had taken the Sacrament within last three months according to Anglican form. The fee was a modest one shilli This legislation was prompted by the arrival of some 15,000 Palatines who had floc to Great Britain during the reign of Queen Anne.

The 1709 act permitted great numbers of foreign Protestants to acquire Brit citizenship. Response among the German Palatines was so overwhelming that P liament once again under Tory control repealed the law just three years later in Ja ary 1711/12. The only avenue remaining available for naturalization was a priv act. It should be pointed out that the 1709 law did not apply to the colonies. Th seeking to benefit under its terms had to do so in Great Britain.

The question of individual colonial naturalizations was clarified in 1736 wher was determined that an alien naturalized in one colony was to be considered Englishman in that colony only; elsewhere, he retained his alien status.

It was not until 1740 that Parliament provided for imperial naturalization. The required an applicant to reside seven or more years in a colony without being abs for more than two consecutive months. The applicant had to take the oath of al giance and subscribe his profession in the Christian belief before the chief justice some other colonial judge in open court, and he had to submit a certificate signed two witnesses proving that he had taken the Sacrament within the last three mon in a Protestant or Reformed congregation within Great Britain or the American co

The first instance of a blanket policy of denization for aliens was the 1681 announcement by King Charles II granting the Huguenot refugees denization without charge. Some of the refugees sought denizations or naturalizations in England before leaving for the colonies. Such action gave them imperial status. One of the earliest such examples was Nicholas Martiau who came to Jamestown, Virginia in the spring of 1620.[2] The earliest example of a stranger being admitted to citizenship in the colonies was that of George Hacke in 1653 in Northampton County, Virginia.

On 18 January 1699/1700 by an order-in-council, the English government banned the granting of denizations in the colonies by governors unless expressly authorized to do so in their commissions. By the statute of 11 and 12 William III, all persons being natural-born subjects of the king could inherit from ancestors, lineal and collateral, even though their forebear was born out of the king's allegiance.

In 1709 Parliament provided for naturalization in both a timely and inexpensive manner. Applicants had to take and subscribe the oaths of allegiance and supremacy and to disavow the Roman Catholic doctrine of transubstantiation in open court. The question of individual colonial naturalizations was clarified in 1736 when it was determined that an alien naturalized in one colony was to be considered an Englishman in that colony only; elsewhere, he retained his alien status.

It was not until 1740 that Parliament provided for imperial naturalization. The act required an applicant to reside seven or more years in a colony without being absent for more than two consecutive months. The applicant had to take the oath of allegiance and subscribe his profession in the Christian belief before the chief justice or some other colonial judge in open court, and he had to submit a certificate signed by two witnesses proving that he had taken the Sacrament within the last three months in a Protestant or Reformed congregation within Great Britain or the American colonies. The act exempted Quakers and Jews from complying with the sacramental requirement and substituted oaths accommodating their respective faiths. The name of each person was to be entered in the local court record and in the official book of the colony's secretary. Annual lists of the names of those naturalized were to be transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of Trade. Such naturalizations were valid throughout the Empire. The act excluded Roman Catholics. In 1747 the act was amended to accommodate Protestants such as Moravians from having to avoid compromising their scruples against taking oaths.

[2] Numbered among his notable descendants are Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, and the first President of the United States, George Washington.

During the French and Indian War Parliament established another means of naturalization. By the 1756 act the King could commission foreigners as officers (except the colonel of a regiment) and engineers in colonial regiments who could assist with the foreign-born subjects—particularly in Pennsylvania and Maryland. Each alien was to take the oath of allegiance and the Sacrament six months prior to his commissioning. These naturalized officers and engineers, however, could serve only in America.

Parliament took especial note of the contributions of these foreign-born soldiers in America and in 1761 provided for granting naturalization to aliens who were officers and common soldiers in the Royal American Regiment and Engineers. Any foreign Protestant who had served or would serve two years in the British forces in North America, would take the oaths and declarations, and had taken the Sacrament within six months prior to admission could be naturalized. If they had purchased estates since the earlier act of 1756, these were to be confirmed.

The acts of 1740 and 1761 qualified naturalized subjects to hold military and civil offices but barred them from serving in Parliament, the Privy Council, and offices in the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland. Accordingly, the act of 1773 removed such impediments. An order in council in 1773 banned local admission to citizenship in the colonies.

This volume is a compilation of naturalization and denization records in the British colonies in America between 1607 and 1775. In these records are a number of interesting examples that illuminate the prevailing practices in the colonies. An English subject was one of English descent born on English soil. The offspring of Englishmen born abroad, even though of English descent, were not citizens and had to undergo naturalization if they intended to acquire realty and transmit it to their heirs. Examples include the family of Captain James Neale in Maryland in 1666, Edward Broughton in Jamaica in 1690, the brothers John and William Custis in Virginia in 1658, Col. Walter Hamilton of Nevis in 1703, Anna Vassal in Jamaica, and Gideon Harvey in Northumberland County, Virginia in 1656. While the latter was born in The Hague, Holland, his citizenship record identified his parents' place of origin as Westminster, Middlesex, England. The only exception were those children born of parents who followed Charles II into exile during 1641–1660.

Josiah James Hanses was born of English parents on the high seas in an English bottom. Since he was not, however, born on English soil, it was necessary for him to be naturalized in Jamaica on 11 November 1703. He was still a minor. Finally, it was not enough simply to be born in the British Empire. Children of aliens born in the colonies were still aliens. That situation changed in 1700 during the reign of William III, when legislation allowed natural-born subjects the right to inherit from alien parents or more remote ancestors. Accordingly, there was no longer a distinction between an Englishman and a colonial in the matter of inheritance.

Prior to the Act of Union of 1707, uniting the Kingdoms of England and Scot land, the status of Scots was one of strangers. There was one important exceptior Scots could take up residence in certain American colonies before the Act of Unio if the Royal charter for a colony specified their eligibility. Such was the case in th Royal grant to Sir Fernando Gorges in 1639, which deemed Scots as natural-bor subjects. Otherwise, they had to undergo denization or naturalization in the colonies as in the case of John Pouston of Massachusetts in 1664. People born in a forme colony of another European power annexed by England were also aliens. Jaco Lookerman of New York was such an individual in 1678. He had been born in Ne York when it was under Dutch control. Among those foreigners taking advantage c serving in the military in order to become a British subject was Col. Henry Bouque Denizations and naturalizations by a colony were not valid outside of the grantin colony. If a citizen of such a colony removed to another colony, he or she was ob ligated to reapply under the terms of the statutes of his or her new colony of resi dence. Accordingly, Peter Hendrick Striepers was naturalized in New Jersey in 176 and in Pennsylvania in 1766.

Whether it was the cost of obtaining citizenship, geographical proximity, loo holes in the law, or ignorance that prompted colonists to travel to another colony t obtain citizenship, it was not unusual to find aliens from Maryland and New Jerse being naturalized in the neighboring colony of Pennsylvania. The value of a compi lation of naturalizations for all of the English colonies is best exemplified by th case of David Law of Orange County, North Carolina who was naturalized in Penn sylvania in April 1761. Why he did so is unclear. Perhaps he was back in Pennsyl vania on business and decided to take advantage of the situation available to him Because the British colonies, notably those that united to form the United States i 1776, are no longer in the Commonwealth, this composite index may serve to indi cate the whereabouts of individuals in colonies seemingly having no geographica relevance. Sebastian Zouberbuhler, for example, lived in Massachusetts and Sout Carolina many years before eventually settling in Nova Scotia, where he finally too out citizenship.

The status of alien women being endenized and naturalized might seem to impl that they were unmarried or widowed, since married women were the property c their husbands. Michael Reis was naturalized in April 1744 in Pennsylvania. Hi wife, Margaret Reis, was naturalized five months later, so care should be exercise in deducing the status of females in these records. While one might presume that a applicant for citizenship would have been an adult, the case of eleven-and-a-half year-old Jacob Sickneer in New York in 1715/6 demonstrates the contrary. It will b necessary to interpret each case in light of the law in the colony involved.

While Protestants and Jews, as well as Roman Catholics in certain instances, be came British subjects, American Indians could also be made citizens as in the cas of Abimelech in 1695 in Connecticut. Aliens born in Africa were also admitted t citizenship; Jamaica had the greatest number.

During the seventeenth and the first decade of the eighteenth century Frenc Huguenots accounted for the majority of non-English stock seeking citizenshi German colonists, however, surpassed their number thereafter. While Germans ac counted for the largest number of aliens becoming British between 1607 and 177(others were from Bohemia, Denmark, France, Greece, Italy, Luxembourg, Norwa the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, and Switzerland.

It is imperative to be acquainted with the statutes of each colony for the appropriate period in order to ascertain the status of the foreign born. While suffrage was restricted to citizens in certain colonies, there were exceptions. In South Carolina, for example, an alien could vote provided that he owned the requisite amount of land, but he could not hold political office.

The location of colonial denization and naturalization records varies from one colony to another. They may be found at the local jurisdictional level as well as the colonial level. They may be found in court minutes, government records, deed books, legislative journals, statutes, private papers of proprietors such as William Penn, and land patents as in Jamaica and Pennsylvania.

More so in England than in the colonies the question of naturalization was one that generated opposition. The English coveted their commercial privileges and were reluctant to share those benefits with others. Xenophobia, religious differences, fear of loss of political power, and military security influenced naturalization policy and legislation. In England, Parliament sought to maintain its powers by refusing to allow the monarch too much authority in the area of naturalization.

Special occupational categories at various times received favored treatment in the area of naturalization. People involved in the linen industry did so in 1663. Foreigners serving on English men-of-war or merchant ships in times of war did so in 1667. In neither instance were applicants under these statutes subject to the Sacramental test. In 1749 foreign Protestants in whaling could become English subjects, although they could not be absent for more than a year from Great Britain, Ireland, or the colonies.

The list of denization and naturalization records in this book has been compiled from a large body of published literature (see below), then expanded and improved by the examination of original source material not previously available to scholars.

The literature may treat aliens from the point of view of ethnicity or religion; examples are Charles W. Baird's History of the Huguenot Emigration in America (1885) or Arthur Henry Hirsh's The Huguenots of Colonial South Carolina (1928). In addition to monographic studies, periodicals of the same ilk, e.g. the American Jewish Historical Society's Publications and the Jewish Historical Society of England's Transactions, are replete with lists and examples of denizations and naturalizations.

The following are publications and sources, listed by locality, that contain denization and naturalization records:

England

The most important published works for England are William A. Shaw's Letters of Denization and Acts of Naturalizations for Aliens in England and Ireland, 1603–1700 [and] 1701–1800, 2 volumes (1911–23), A Supplement to Dr. W. A. Shaw's Letters of Denization and Acts of Naturalizations (1932), Montague S. Giuseppi's Naturalization of Foreign Protestants in the American and West Indian Colonies (Pursuant to Statute 13 George II, c.7) (1921), Calendar of State Papers, Colonial Series America and West Indies, 1574–1730 (1860–1939), Leo Francis Stock's Proceedings and Debates of the British Parliament Respecting North America, I, 314–15 (1924), and William L. Grant's Acts of the Privy Council of England, Colonial Series, II, 95–96 (1908–12). Many of the entries in these works specify the colony of residence of the alien.

Connecticut

Public Records of the Colony of Connecticut, 15 volumes (1884–1967), contain the records created at the colony level.

nealogical Register, CLVI (2002) 159–64, contains relevant data about the fore Protestants. Dr. Terrence M. Punch's "Naturalization of Foreign Protestants, N Scotia, 1758," The Nova Scotia Genealogist, XXI (2003) 61–66, is a superior w of genealogical scholarship.

Pennsylvania

The Papers of William Penn, I, 347–49 (1981) has the naturalizations of reside of the former New Sweden including Swedes, Finns, and Dutch. The Colonial Reco of Pennsylvania, 10 volumes (1838–52) featuring the Minutes of the Provincial Co cil constitute another important source. The statutes of the colony are equally va able. Persons Naturalized in the Province of Pennsylvania appeared in The Penns vania Archives, Second Series, II, 293–415. This work included those who w naturalized between 1740 and the eve of the Revolution. Statutes at Large of Pe sylvania from 1682 to 1801 (1898–1911). Abstracts of Pennsylvania Records of Na ralizations 1695–1773 Found in Colonial Records (Minutes of the Provincial Co cil), Volumes 1, 2, 3, 9, & 10; the Statutes at Large of Pennsylvania, volumes II, IV, VI, VII, & VIII; Pennsylvania Archives, Series I, Volumes 1, 3, & 4 with S name Index (1983) brought together the records from lesser known and underutili sources. Cindy Crocker Livengood's Genealogical Abstracts of the Laws of Penns vania and the Statutes at Large (1990) has abstracts from both sources. In rec group 17 of the Pennsylvania Land Records, the early patent and commission bo contain naturalizations that routinely report the place of birth and parentage. Th date from the first two decades of the eighteenth century. The records have b microfilmed.

Rhode Island and Providence Plantations

Sidney S. Rider's The History of Denization and Naturalization in the Colony Rhode Island 1636–1790 (1905?) was the earliest study for the state. Additional amples appeared in Records of the Colony of Rhode Island and Providence Plan tions in New England, 10 volumes (1856–65).

South Carolina

Daniel Ravenel's Liste des Francois et Suisses from an Old Manuscript List French and Swiss Protestants Settled in Charleston, on the Santee and at the ange Quarter in Carolina Who Desired Naturalization Prepared about 1695–16 (1888) is the most important source for the colony's earliest naturalizations. Statutes at Large of South Carolina by Thomas Cooper, II, 132–33 (1837) is comp mentary. Others appear in the Miscellaneous Records, Main Series, volumes EE FF. In the Records in the British Public Record Office Relating to South Caroli XX, 547–48 and XXIII, 263–64 are transcripts of naturalization records. Both of latter two sources are on microfilm. The Provincial Court Record Book, 1694–17 also contains a number of entries involving the early Huguenot colonists.

Virginia

An earlier attempt to compile a list of naturalizations and denizations in the Dominion was Lloyd de Witt Bockstruck's "Naturalizations and Denizations in V ginia," National Genealogical Society Quarterly, LXXIII (1985) 109–16. The Jo nals of the House of Burgesses of Virginia 1619–1776, 13 volumes, (1895–19 have petitions for naturalizations. William Waller Hening's The Statutes at Lar Being a Collection of All the Laws of Virginia from the First Session of the Legis ture in the Year 1619, volumes 1–8 (1819–23), contains the texts of the laws

Dear Barbara,

Here's the printouts of Adam (Frieden) Fisher's descendants. I didn't go back beyond Adam at this time, even tho I know who Adam's father is.

Hope this sparks your "free" juices, especially on Uncle Tom's line - Do you have any of the Fisher brother(s) pictures? (+wives?)

I have a picture with Clarissa ~~Lorena~~, Charles, David, Henry (+H) Joseph, John, Robert, Tom

+ I have a picture of the 1928 Reunion in Wellington KS.

Have you contacted any of Emma's line recently? I would appreciate it if I could get a current address & ~~if~~ name (including husband) of someone in the Duffy line (Emma).

Please keep in contact & keep me posted on your progress of Uncle Tom's line.

Your Cousin
Dean

THE DESCENDANTS OF SEBASTIAN FISHER

all FTM
Fran Dean Guerin

Don Norman

1.SEBASTAIN FISHER

Sebastian Fisher was born in Germany about 1675. He married Susanna in Germany. The family moved to Holland. They sailed from Holland for England on Jul;y 28, 1708 and arrived in New York in June of 1709.

The family first lived in Annsbsurg on the Hudson river in New York. By 1717, they had moved to Gerlachsdorf in the Schoharie Valley. In the spring of 1723, the Fishers and 14 other families moved to the Tulpehocken Valley in PA. Sebastian's name is not found in PA records after 1743 and he may have died or the family may have moved to VA.

Children of Sebastian and Susanna Fisher.

HERE IT IS AGAIN "THE LETTER" FOR 2001 !!!!!! Dean and I always think that we are doing things n time and then we find out time has caught up with us. I won't make this a long letter -just a catch up on the year behind us, we started out with Dean being in the hospital Jan. 4th for the reaming out of his stents, which had become a routine event for him, everything went o.k. Then on March 22 Dean lost his mother very suddenly (which is the way she had hoped she would go and her wish was granted). When we got back from Newton, Dean went back into the hospital on the 4th of April and this time had the radiation procedure done and he has gotten along quite well and it has now been 8 months and we keep our fingers crossed and do a lot of praying, He keeps very busy as he goes up with Greg to the "hilltop house" and puts in long hours of work and seems to be doing O.K., only a very tired man when he comes down, he rests for a day or so and then off he takes again...We had some very nice visits from friends and relatives this past summer, as we always enjoy company and we have been having such beautiful weather to go along with it. The summer was a little warm, during the time our daughter and family from California drove here in August, but we got along fine, thanks to A/C. Enjoyed seeing the grandchildren, since it had been almost a year since seeing them. Greg and family are really into the holiday spirit as Karen's sister is here to get married at Greg and Karen's home. With all the hustle and bustle that is going on over there, I stay away. The granddaughters are all aglow with Christmas and their being in the wedding. It will be a very nice wedding and a lot of work. The date is Dec. 15 and then the Christmas spirit takes over...Dean and I managed to get away to Kansas on Nov.21 and had Thanksgiving Day with our good friends in Wichita. I enjoyed every bite and (especially since I didn't have to do any cooking). That was a real treat...Then I tried to go visit my Dad as many times as I could, as he was 99 on the 4th of Dec. but he didn't realize it, or at least didn't want to act like he knew it-- he just said he was just too old. At least he gets good care from the home and he is a handful at times... Probably as the "world is turning" he is just as lucky not to know about anything. Dean and I are going to California for Christmas this year. We are leaving the 20th of Dec. and returning the 30th, so we should have a nice visit with the grandchildren and nice weather...In closing, we want to wish you and yours the Merriest of Christmas and the Best 2002 New Year ever, have good health, happiness and safety. Take good care of yourselves and let us hear from you.

The Colorado Duo, (Eunice and Dean)

Hi, one and all,Thought I'd do a mass mailing and update you'all on the St. patty's day blizzard of 2003. It started on Monday 17 raining and on Tuesday, it started snowing at the rate of one to two inches a hour, and did not stop until the afternoon of the 20th. Here in Parker, Colorado, we had 4 feet of snow on the level. Everything in the state stopped and I mean stopped! All major hiways and airport were closed. state and local government closed as well as the post office, UPS and Fed Express! It has certainly helped our drought situation, although the rivers and reservoirs are almost dry, and we have been and will be on water rationing this summer. The foothills and the mountains to the west of us got up to seven feet of snow-It would be great for the ski slopes, if they could just get there.
Greg and I have finished the cabin in the mountains and he and the family can officially live in it, although we had been doing that occasionally, while we were working up there. I called some neighbors up there last night, and they had 5 feet of snow there-It will last a while at 9000 feet. Eunice and I are doing reasonably well, and I have not had any reoccurrence of my heart problem for 3 months-so that's good news.
Haven't been back to Kansas for 6 months, but plan on going back for my sister's wedding reception on the 5th of April, if the weather cooperates. If we do make it out of here, we will probably go to Lincoln , Nebraska to visit some friends and then back to Colorado. With the uncertainty of the war going on , we are putting our other travel plans on hold for the time being. Other than my getting on the roof to shovel off this wet snow, not much else is going on here, or elsewhere that's newsworthy, so will sign off. I am getting so much Spam now, that I'm gong to change my email address, but will let you all know when it happens.

Hi, Barb-first things first-Greg's phone no. is 3038402596-karen is his wife-address is 16321 parkside drive, parker, co, 80134-her email is kegrimm@home.com- now for the rest of your questions-My mother passed away 22 march of this year-would have been 97 in a month-The day we got back , I had problems and went in for the radiation treatment-lots of problems, but won't bore you with those-as you know , I finished the grim book, and have taking it easy for the last several months, trying to recover from all the doctor gaffes. The next one will be my mother's father's-I had already done her mother's- I have also finished both sides of Eunice's family, so now I can concentrate solely on my side. I plan on doing the Fischer's this year also, as I don't plan on soliciting pictures from anyone, or very few relative to the number I put in the grim book-almost 400 pictures there, which is a lot of work, when one has to scan, resize, doctor up, add titling, index, etc. took me 4 months to write the genealogy, history and do the pictures.I hope your mother will be happy there, but they are seldom happy when moved from their friends, but since she is in her home, perhaps it will be different-at we can hope so-that's about it from here for now -keep in touch -

Dean,
Have been wondering about you, told Jack last week that I was going to call you-now that's really something in this day of email! And while I am on this subject, how about sending me your son's snail mail address and phone and email address, just in case, you are down again, I will have a contact! I think of that feisty granddaughter Alex and how she was so attached to Eunice, and now I have one who is the same way. And her younger brother is even worse, just has not warmed up to Jack as yet. I tell him he has to play with him more.

Hope things will be getting better health and computer wise! We have been very busy this year, first with teaching, had three evening classes for the 8 weeks and than my sister lost her fiancée within 23 days of diagnosis with cancer, so Mother finally decided to move from Blackwell to Woodward to be closer to family-both my brother and a sister live there. So we packed, and packed and loaded and packed and loaded and moved her into a house next door to my brother. She is adjusting, is still very active at 84, but tires easily. She had a drapery shop for years so is now busy doing her window treatments. I will go out this next week to see her for a couple of days and return through Blackwell to decorate graves on my way home.

We have put in a garden this year, skipped a couple of years, but like the fresh vegetables. Hope to make a trip to Ft. Wayne some time later. Have been working on the completion of the John Henry Walcher book, has been so long in the developing. When you do it yourself, you can be happy with the way you want it, but when someone else is involved-that is different!

Now I want to know-do you take some time to do IMPORTANT things or are you going to begin on the Fisher saga? Hoping to get back to working with my Fisher line before too long-as you know, just want to complete the Walcher book first!

Know the hospital trips have been a drain, but hang in there and please tell Eunice I am thinking of her-know Mother says "Getting old is hell, you loose your health and your friends! This came after her angioplasty in May and the triple bypass in October last year at which time she lost three good friends, the very best one while she was in OKC with the bypass surgery.

This brings up another thought, how is your Mother? Last note she was getting very advanced, is she still living at Caldwell? If you will let us know the next time you are going to be in that area, we will come over and visit for an afternoon.

Our 70th Anniversary of the first Walcher Reunion was held in South Haven, KS on May 5 & 6, yes, South Haven, there were about 70 attending. In 1931 the Walcher cousins held a reunion in the Enid Park and have held a reunion almost every year since-think there has been about 3 or 4 missed during the polio years, war, etc. Saturday afternoon we had a driving tour of the area to the old homesteads and cemeteries, then that evening at the motel at the I35 and South Haven exit, had dinner (about 35 attended) and finally the basket lunch at noon on Sunday. Several years ago we began honoring our "Living Treasure" one of the older members of the family, it is a very nice presentation of their life. There is also an auction to make $ for stamps, paper products, etc for the next year. It is always good to see the family and find out what has gone on for the past year.

Think this about it from here-SO good to hear from you. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Hi, One and all-I'm bcc-ing most every one on my e-mail list with this message-as writing each one of you after 8 months of computer down time would be more that I can stand of this computer! A virus, as some of you know, hit my computer last August and wiped out both of my harddrives-totally- Greg-my son-finally got part of it running in November, so that I could start my Grim History and Genealogy book. My scanner would only work-if the modem was not. I won't go into all the problems, but I finally finished the Grim Book-556 pages- in late March,2001. Poor Greg- in between trips to China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Japan, Italy and France, Toronto where his company is headquartered-finally researched the problem via the net and trial and error-and with a new scssi card got every thing almost working right today-a major milestone. In between all of this, I have been in the hospital 9 times in the last 18 months-for reworks on my heart-the last one being a radiation treatment to kill the tissue that keeps growing in the wrong places.
Lots of hilarious and not -so h- experiences with the doctors and hospitals. The total bills were in excess of 350,000 dollars. Thank goodness my insurance(s) covered all of it. Then the drugs that are supposed to keep you alive, but the side effects of some of them are unknown , until they hit you. Hopefully I'm on the down hill side now. Eunice is bearing up admirably under all of this-in spite of her continuing worsening of her Post Polio Syndrome- and her emergency surgery in September-2000. Well, enough woe is me problems-as Edward R. Murrow said-I think-that's the way it was.
Unless this thing goes south again, Eunice will be writing to some of you and I the rest at a later time. cheers dean and eunice

Hi, everyone,
My apologies for putting everyone on here, but it seemed to be the quickest way to tell what's been happening here. Eunice has been out of the hospital now for 5 days and is doing better , in regaining her strength. She was in the hospital for 10 days, -6 days before they could find out what was wrong with her, and 4 days after surgery. It turns out that 38 years after an old surgery, the scar tissue got wrapped around part of her little intestine, closing it off. As a result, her system shut down, as nothing could move. Surgery removed the scar tissue, her system finally got cleared out, after laxatives, upper GI series, lower barium, colonoscopy, 2and 1/2 gallons of enemas, MRI, x-rays, blood tests, and many Demerol shots to kill the pain for 6 days, until they found out the problem. Eunice said it was like having a baby continuously for 6 days. Bet that was something only a women could sympathize with!
I'm still having my continuing heart problems, but the docs said that will continue until a new procedure is approved that keeps the tissue from growing and closing the bypasses.. Well, enough of the bad news-now for the good-we don't have any other problems, ha. Weather is beautiful, in the 60's and nites-30's, leaves are turning, and the sugar maples are a beautiful scarlet. More later when the news gets better.

Dean, hope you are feeling much better now. Mother had a stent last May and it closed down by September, then had triple bypass. She seems to be doing ok, just felt that she should be better than she was, took the stress test on treadmill and then the nuclear x-rays which shows the heart in 3-D last month, all was fine, so she is off with my brother's family to Boston next week. She is 83. Our son-in-law also had a stent in August, he is 50 and doing well, he is a manager of a Long John Silvers so his days are long and he is still tired, but feeling better.

Will be looking forward to hearing from you later, take it easy and enjoy the grandchildren in California.

As Always, barb

Hi, Barb,
I can't remember when I wrote, but it was probably my x-mas e-mail- well, not much has been done on any genealogy, as I have been in the hospital 4 times since Jan 3. My by-passes closed up and they had to put in stents- then the stents closed up and they had to ream them out. Just got out the last time this last week. Hopefully, we're headed to California on the 25th for 2 weeks, if I don't have problems before then. Going to find a cardiologist there just in case. I've had good intentions on genealogy, but first things first.
Sounds like you guys have really been keeping busy, but if you enjoy all those activities, that's great. I'll ring off now, and catch you in a month, I hope.

Dean and Eunice, how are you doing? Haven't heard from you in so long...we are doing fine...Jack's PSA is still running around 1.5 since the surgery, but Dr. is not too alarmed about it...now to take care of his hemmroids. Seems there is always something. We completed the teaching the first of March and have been working on the house and family tree for two different lines. Also babysitting the children and great grands and trying to keep up with the yard and house projects. This week we began a class at Tech (since we teach we attend free) on Digital Cameras, also covers other areas, i.e., scanning, emailing, and the internet. We like to see what others are teaching. After two classes they haven't touched on anything we don't already know, but it is interesting meeting new people and seeing what is new on the subject.

How is the Fisher genealogy book coming? I finally got all the pictures and information out of my boxes and into notebooks. It is much easier to see what I have. Have not been able to find the family of Cyrus Everette Fisher, my grandmother's brother. It is his great grandchildren who are about my age that I am looking for...however, their names are quite common and have not had any results on the Internet or using one of the Search companies that advertise on the TV. Will continue as time permits--maybe someday.

Know you have had unusual weather this year, as we all have...was 88 here yesterday, makes you think that our summer will be too hot! Let us hear from you...as always, barb

Thank you! and Yes you can send me what you have and I can send you what I have on the Fisher Family too. My husband's Great Grandfather Benjamin Franklin Clendenen married Martha Virginia Fisher, daughter of Greenbury Fisher and Juliet Koontz. Greenbury Fisher was son of William and Sarah Samuel Fisher. William was a brother of Henry Fisher.

I may find you have other connections to my family as well SIEGER. My dad
was her father. I believe George was a very prominate business man in his day. My Family history goes back to 1737 when our founding father in America came into Philedelphia Port.
Have you seen my family site in Geocities yet? If not click on this: <A HREF="http://www.geocities.com/SunsetStrip/Towers/7312/Family/Genealogy.html">
My Family Genealogy Page</A> This has both Clendenen Family and Sieger

Family on it. One other family is being added to my page soon.. Ashman Family which is actually my birth family. I was adopted into the Sieger Family. I love the genealogy research as you can see by my dedication to it. I am a history buff too. History on families are what makes the searching so worthwhile..

Hi, We got 2 weeks ago, and am just now catching up on everything. We did not go the old Fisher area in Berks co. We were doing other genealogy along the way, visiting friends and relatives. 3+ weeks and 6000 miles later, here we are. I'm trying to decide which family to start the next book on- I'm going to pick the easiest one, I think, but which one is it? I have the fewest pictures from the Fishers, but the most history-tend to think the history will be easier than the ones with several pictures.well, chat you later. How is Jack doing? Great , I hope.

Hi, Barb,
Sorry to be so late answering, but--excuses---- I just finished a genealogy book for Eunice's mother's side of the family-I did her dad's side last year. 280 pages- 175 pages of photos, maps and old German medicine ,old German proverbs etc. I had a printer do the book here. He does a really good job. Pictures are in black -white when I give them to him-I scan everything in on my scanner, use Word for the written history and use family Tree Maker version 6.0 for the several genealogy formats I use. I put everything on several zip drives and hand it to him-every thing is in order from the cover page-dedication, foreword, Table of contents , genealogy, photos, Index of names, to the appendix listing all the annotated photos (I use Photo Deluxe to scan and modify the pictures). It's taken several months to finally write, call, and e-mail 200 hundred relatives for final genealogy updates, photos, get a price from the printer (based on the number of books) and re-do the above relatives with a return self addressed envelope to tell me no. of copies and a check. My drop date is June 10-have already received 40 orders-I put in a D-ring notebook, box and ship 2 days later-and then we're headed for Texas for my Astronaut physical that I get for free every 2 years. It's taken several months of fairly steady work on the computer to get all of this done. In the fall, I'm going to do my mother's father's side-(did her mother's side 2 years ago) then I will start on the Grimm and Fisher side next year, if I last that long! Does this sound like a good excuse for being a little tardy in answering? Well, I hope it will do- When we get back from Texas, we're heading for Pennsylvania for some family reunions-grimm side- and may visit the Fisher place again. What are your plans for the summer now that you both are free to travel? Take care -let us hear from you.

Dear Dean and Eunice,
Just saw on the Weather Channel that you are again having snow...probably won't last long, but is always so beautiful this time of year-so much moisture.

I have been getting into some of the old pictures for the Walcher family reunion on May 2 in South Haven. And hope to do a few of the Fisher ones before I have my knee surgery on May 6. I know we talked about getting some of Grandpa Tom and Grandma Suzanna Fisher to you, could you refresh my memory. In your last note you said you had completed information on I believe the Grimm family. I would love to see a couple of pages to see how you put it together...with word processor? and how you did your pictures. A cousin and I are getting close to printing the information for the 5 brothers who went to KS --4 out of the 5 had good sized families, so there is lots of information.

Better close now, have a trip to town to get copies, etc. It's Friday again, where did this week go? Seems I do not get as much done in the same amount of time anymore! Take care and let us hear from you...I promise to reply more quickly the next time.

Christmas 1998

Holiday Greetings:

It's a time to remember our friends and hopefully be remembered.

The Internet has entered our lives- and with an e-mail address (dgrimm@ecentral.com), we correspond with friends and family almost weekly here in the states and abroad.

This year has been rather calm for Eunice and I. She had foot surgery in March to hopefully counter the effects of Polio, but it irritated things, more than helped. We have made a number of trips back to Kansas to visit our elderly parents and a trip to visit our daughter and family in California. We are leaving in 2 weeks for another visit there for the holidays.

Our grandkids are growing like weeds and are a source of enjoyment and wonder, as they express thoughts, some painfully honest, and some hilarious. I wonder why I can't remember similar things when our kids were small- perhaps senility is setting in, or I was too busy to listen? Or maybe I wasn't there, as NASA had priority then and we were everywhere, but home.

My activities this year have included getting a new computer, with all the bells and whistles, to speed up my genealogy work. I finished up a book on Eunice's family in the spring. It was 200 pages of history, family, and photos. It turned out really great, if I do say so myself. Other activities included house painting, shrub planting, installing drip systems, etc - all the usual things one does to maintain a home.

Eunice has sewed numerous outfits for the grandkids' "Beanie Babies" for Christmas, but has slacked off on her crocheting afghans and cross-stitching, but still does it when the mood strikes.

Wishing you-all the best of everything in the coming New Year!

Dear Dean and Eunice,

While the gang is bowling and I am babysitting Larissa. (she is naping now), I up-date you on what's going on in Oklahoma....

FIRST, may I say how wonderful it was visiting with you during my trip toDenver. I so enjoyed getting to know you both and look forward to having you to come to Oklahoma sometime to visit. I hope you will enjoy the candle. Keepsake Candles are made with Phillips' plastic and are a favorite of mine. Again, thank you for your hospitality and our wonderful visit.

I have been working on getting the information for you. We talked about pictures of Great Grandpa Tom and some of his brothers and sisters. Nancy and I went through the few pictures she had in her Grandmother's (Kate's) Bible. There were several pictures and she is going to have copies made of them for me and you. Aunt Frances, her mother, was transferred to the Nursing Home where her sister, Suzanne works. It may be awhile we hear from Nandy, know she is extra busy and under stress now with Aunt Frances being ill., but I know she will ge them done. We have talked twice since I have been back. She took your name and number and I feel she will probably send the copies to you or call you. She was going to look for other pictures.

I told you that I had copy of the Fisher Family tree, got home and inspected it to find, it is the Walcher Family Tree. Sorry, do have a copy of the info GGpa Tom wrote on paper in his handwriting, might have been what they used to make the Family Tree. Guess we will continue to ask others for it, I would say someone who went to every Fisher Reunion in Argonia/Wellington might still have it.

I took the copies of the Old German Wills to Ms. Woodruff about 10days ago. She said it would take her awhile. She is 82 but very agile and very busy, teaching German to her Advanced students, and her other activities. Said it was difficult to read, but she would do her best. The problem will be that the copies are so poor. We shall see....she will work on it in between her many activities.

Have gotten some information from my family and are beginning to fill in dates and places. Will try to complete more in the next week or so...want to write to Gloria Ann, also.

Dear Dean and Louise

While the camp is booking and I am babysitting Landon, (she is sleeping now), I up-date you on what's going on in Castlerock.

FIRST, may I say how wonderful it was seeing you during my stay in Denver. I so enjoyed getting to know you both and look forward to having you to come to Castlerock sometime to visit. I hope you will enjoy the castle. Keepsake Candles are made with Phillips' phone and are a favorite of mine. Again, thank you for your hospitality and our wonderful visit.

I have been working on getting the information for you. We talked about pictures of Grace Courtney Tyson and some of the brothers and sisters. Nancy and I went through our box pictures she had in her Christmas box (Pete's) Bible. There were several pictures and she is going to have copies made of them for me and you. Aunt Frances, her mother, was transferred to the Nursing Home where she stays. Sometime tonight, it may be as while we hear from Nancy, I know she is extra busy and under stress now with Aunt Frances being ill. But I know she will go them done. We have talked twice since I have been back. She took your name and number and I feel she will probably send the copies to you or call you. She was going to look for other pictures.

I love you that I had copy of the Peter Family they got loose and inspected it to find it is the Weldon Family Tree. Nancy do have a copy of the info Celia Tyson wrote on paper in his handwriting, might have been what they used to make the Family Tree. Grace was will continue to ask others for it. I would say someone who went to every Tyson reunion in Abingdon is Abingdon might still have it.

I to ask the copies of the Old Cemetery Wills to Mr. Woodruff about 10 days ago. She said it would take her awhile. She is 82 but very agile and very busy tending Gemma to her Advanced students and her other activities. Said it was difficult to say but she would do for Sure. The problem will be that the copies are on paper. We shall see. She will work on it in between her many activities.

Have gotten some information from my family and are beginning to fill in dates and places. Will try to complete more in the next week or so. Want to write to Grace Ann also.

My throat surgery was put off a week due to changes in the Doctor's schedule. Had it the is past Wednesday, November 15th morning. Have a very sore throat and had some problems with the medication and have felt a bit lousy. Am going to try work tomorrow, if I get up feeling ok in the morning. Know the girls at work have been swamped and hate to be out any more than I have to.

Since there were changes in the surgery date, we have not gotten down to Norman as we had anticipated. Perhaps will the second weekend of December, when things are definite, I will call Ruth Alexander and set up a time to visit with her and also Virginia Donnell. We shall see how things go. Want it to be when we can also visit with our daughter, she will not be home for Thanksgiving as has to work the next day. When we find out what the next weekend she has off, that will be the weekend we will go to Norman.

November 27, 1995

Holiday greetings to all:

We had our second snow today- only 2 inches. It's been so unseasonably warm the past several months-- highs in the 70's -- that our grass is still green. In the mountains just west of us, they started getting snow in the ski areas in September, and there was enough snow for most of the ski slopes in central and northern Colorado for the Thanksgiving Holidays.

Eunice and I are doing fine. We haven't traveled as much this year, though we spent 3 weeks in Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas visiting friends and relatives in June. Our daughter called from San Jose, California and asked us to come out there, so we left on 5 July and drove there. we spent 5 weeks at her home. we really had fun with Tyler (5) and Brooke(2). From there, we drove to Oregon, Washington, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, and back to Colorado on 21 August. We stopped in Salt Lake City,Utah to do some family research at the Morman Library. they have the largest collection in the world.

I have finished Eunice's side of the family, and if I quit procrastinating, will get her family history and pictures published this next year. It seems I like to do research much better than putting it all together.

We are going back to Kansas (Newton) to visit Eunice's father on his 93rd birthday- December 4. My mother also lives there and will be 92 in April. Both are in good for their ages. Her father finally decided that he didn't want to live by himself any longer, so we moved him into an assisted- living care home. He is still independent, but does not have to cook, clean, wash, etc.

We spent Thanksgiving with our son, Greg, his wife -Karen, and Kelsey(5) and Alexis(3). Kelsey goes to school just 3 blocks from us, so we see the children quite often.

We're flying to San Jose. California, to spend the Christmas holidays with Deana, Our daughter, and her husband-Gary - and children.

I'm hoping that I'll finally get to Ireland this next year to research my mother's side of the family and we also plan on going back to Pennsylvania for some family reunions on my side.

Eunice and I wish you and yours a prosperous and healthy new year.

As Ever.

THE WILL OF CHRISTIAN FISHER, FATHER OF LUDWIG FISHER, OF HEIDELBERG TOWNSHIP, BURKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA.
Written in old German and translated by Mrs. M.L. Woodruff, age 83, 648 SE Wilshire, Bartlesville, OK 74006 in November 1995 for Barbara Walcher Fulton.

In the name of God, I, Christain Fisher, Heidelberg Township, Burks County. After I have become old and the strength of my body has decreased, I am still of strong mind and memory, as long as it was God's will, so I promise to my son, Ludwig Fisher, my plantation with all the buildings and what belongs to it, located in Heidelberg Township for twelve hundred pounds, which he can annually pay off on as much as he can, as long as I live, but after my death, then he shall give account of what he paid to me during my lifetime. I will now list the entire sum:

1. 1823 on the 4th of Sept, one hundred and seventeen tollars;
2. 1823 on the 7th of November, 50 tollars;
3. 1824 on the 3rd of April, 170 tollars;
4. 1824 on the 24th of May, 200 tollars;
5. 1824 on the 1st of July, 180 tollars;
6. 1826 on the 14th of March, ?? tollars;
7. 1829 on the 30 of December, 150 tollars; that he has now paid, and what else he is going to pay me in my lifetime, that also shall be subtracted from the 1200 tollars. Should he still owe some of the 1200 pounds after my death, he shall not be burdened with more than 40 or 50 pounds annually, to pay to my heirs until the 1200 pounds has been fully paid.

Firstly, I leave to my wife, Caterina Fisher, her stay in my residence/plantation in Heidelberg Township, Burks County. Firstly, that my son Ludwig Fisher, shall give her downstairs the room where she now lives and the upper part of the house (the large room) for her residence as long as she lives, and in the kitchen, and the cellar, and the spring house, to give her room as much as she needs to store her things, to cook on the wood burning stove whenever she wishes.

My son, Ludwig, is suppose to give to my wife, Caterina, annually after my death, 20 tollars in money, 20 bushels of good wheat, 10 bushels of grain, potatoes and maize as much as she needs for herself to raise two pigs and make them fat, to keep annually two cows and to feed them in the summer and also in the winter in the stable where he also feeds his. To let her butcher a chicken whenever she wants to, to let her have in the garden her part where she wants to have it, to have her wood chopped and taken to the house as much as she needs to heat her house and oven. And to be given to my wife, Caterina, 125 pounds of good beef as meat as long as she can take care of herself, should she however become weak and sickly, then my son, Ludwig, should take care of her or he must hire someone to take care of her, as it is christian and right to take good care of the Mother until the end. Then he may keep for himself, the 2 cows and the above mentioned ???? (illegible).

This is my last will and testament that I permit my wife, Caterina, to keep of my possessions until after my death, whatever she wants to...the boxes with all the clothes/material and all that is in it, the bedding and everything that goes with it, and also the 100 tollar .....? (not legible). (Woodruff Information: 3 marks = one tollar, or since he was German, he may have called a dollar a tollar). After that my above mentioned Executor, shall make everything to money and divide it in equal parts to my children, namely: Johannes Fisher, Caterina Fisherin (meaning her maiden name was Fisher), Ludwig Fisher, Elizabeth Fisher, Magdelena Fisher, Susannah Fisher. Among these six children, my Executor shall divide everything that I still own without that which belongs to my widow. That she shall keep until after her death, then it shall fall back again to my heirs.

(Now comes the mystery...Woodruff comment) And to my son, Heinrich Fisher, I leave 50 tollars of my estate (sinderlauvenshauf= what you leave behind), this is my last will and testament. (Woodruff comment: He keeps speaking of the six children and then this Henrich shows up...whether he is from another marriage or illegitimate...he gets only 50 tollar. He calls him, my son, Heinrich Fisher.) After that everything that is left shall be divided in equal parts to my children mentioned for which I appoint my son, Ludwig Fisher in Heidelberg Township, Executor for my last will and testament.

During my reasonableness and of good mind and this is my will thought about and my very last will and testament which was done in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty (1830) in front of witnesses in the year 1830.

If one of my children named should not be satisfied or make up an account against me for my Executor, Ludwig Fisher, that child shall not have anything, and this is my last will and testament which I have made and sealed in front of witnesses. For my last will and testament.

Done on the 17th of April, 1830

Signed Christian Fisher

Witnesses:
Daniel Staudt and Daniel Staudt, Jr. (prounced Stout)
(Perhaps neighbors)

(Woodruff comment: Writes well, undoubtedly schooled, definitely wanted his widow to be cared for.)

and also the 100 dollar ... ? (not legible). (Woodruff information: 3 marks = one dollar, or since he was German, he may have called a dollar a tollar). After that my above mentioned Executor, shall make everything to money and divide it in equal parts to my children, namely Johannes Fisher, Catenna Fisherin (meaning her maiden name was Fisher), Ludwig Fisher, Elizabeth Fisher, Magdelena Fisher, Susannah Fisher. Among these six children, my Executor shall divide everything that I still own without that which belongs to my widow. That she shall keep until after her death, then it shall fall back again to my heirs.

(Now comes the mystery...Woodruff comment) And to my son, Heinrich Fisher I leave 50 tollars of my estate (sindehauvenahaut= what you leave behind), this is my last will and testament. (Woodruff comment: He keeps speaking of the six children and then this Heinrich shows up...whether he is from another marriage or illegitimate...he gets only 50 tollar. He calls him, my son, Heinrich Fisher.) After that everything that is left shall be divided in equal parts to my children mentioned for which I appoint my son, Ludwig Fisher in Heidelberg Township, Executor for my last will and testament.

During my reasonableness and of good mind and this is my will thought about and my very last will and testament which was done in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty (1830) in front of witnesses in the year 1830.

If one of my children named should not be satisfied or make up an account against me for my Executor, Ludwig Fisher, that child shall not have anything, and this is my last will and testament which I have made and sealed in front of witnesses. For my last will and testament.

Done on the 17th of April, 1830

Dear Dean:

Wanted you to know that I have sent letters to all the relatives I had information on and am beginning to get phone calls with promises of information on the James Thomas Fisher branch of the family.

Have not been able to find the addresses for Uncle Everett's family (Cyrus Evert) who lived in Minnesota, but have sent for obituary and help from the local genealogical library. We'll keep our fingers crossed!

Now you said that you were also looking for relatives of the Duffy line. Charles B. Duffy was an attorney in Ponca City many years ago. My Dad knew he was a cousin. I believe you mentioned when we talked that you perhaps had an death certificate for him. Did you say he died in Oklahoma City or did I just dream it? Nevertheless, in the 1943 information, it mentions his two daughters, Virginia Louise and Dorothy Marie. No last names! It was stated that Dorothy Marie lived at 221 Virginia in Ponca City. I will be going thru Ponca the first weekend in October and will go by the library and check the city directories. Perhaps can see if she was married or not by her name on the address. Don't have much more to go on. Also thought I would write the Ponca City Genealogical Society for help. Since he was and attorney, there should be some information about him in the newspaper. A lot will depend on what you already have...could you drop me a line soon with what info you have?

I am assuming that you received my information soon after we talked. Will probably send you a bit at a time as I complete each family or would you rather get it all at once?

I look forward to hearing from you and knowing how your project is coming.

Most sincerely,

Dear Dean,

It was so nice to talk with you last week about our Fisher family. Wanted you to know that I am working on getting the information together which you requested.

Have contacted my cousin, Gloria McDaniel in Pt. Pleasant and she is going to put her side of the family in order. She is the daughter of Smith Roush, one of Mary Catherine (Kate) Fisher Roush Sheets' sons. She gave me the addresses of the Dale Roush family and have written for that information also. Gloria Ann said she had corresponded with an elderly man in Oregon who was a relative and would send me.

It will take a few months of correspondence and collecting material before I can mail the information to you. In the meantime, I hope to get some pictures and newspaper articles copied for you. I feel after talking to you that you are interested in getting these items as well as the "regular" names, dates and places. I will TRY to keep you up-dated on the progress of this project.

Again, thanks for calling, it was delightful visiting with you.

Sincerely,

Observe Diamond Wedding Anniversary

Family Gathering At Home of Fishers, Wed Sixty Years

Of wide interest in the city and of supreme interest to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma avenue, was the gala celebration held in their home Thursday in observance of their diamond wedding anniversary.

At noon an elaborate luncheon was served to the guests, which included their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. All of their children were able to attend with the exception of a son, Everett Fisher, of Audubon, Minn.

Flowers decorated the home, and other appointments stressed a spring note in table arrangements, with a beautiful bouquet of gladiolus and daisies centering the table which was a gift from Hart's Flower shop. Mrs. John Zook sent them a beautiful orchid hydrangia plant.

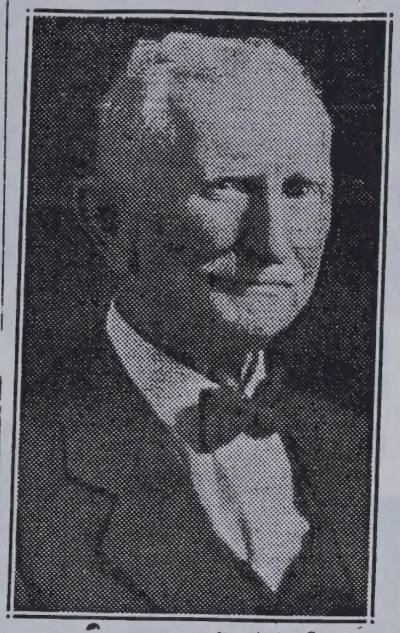
Guests attending the affair presented Mr. and Mrs. Fisher with an electric refrigerator. Those attending included their daughters, Mrs. J. B. Sheets of Blackwell, Mrs. A. F. Bernider of Los Angeles, Calif.; a son, A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; and daughters, Mrs. E. R. Walcher of Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. Vertise Banner of Los Angeles, Calif.

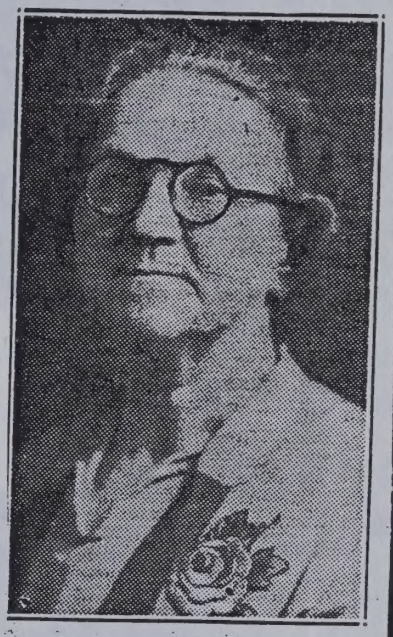
Others participating in the anniversary observance were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith Roush and daughters, Gloria Ann and Marilee, of Ellinwood, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roush and daughter, Nancy Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Walcher and children, Barbara Jean and Ernie Brock, of Blackwell; Mrs. A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; E. R. Walcher and Sue Ala and Chester, of Wichita, Kans.

The couple were united in marriage in a wedding ceremony of 60 years ago in Thomas Ridge community in West Virginia. Mrs. Fisher, who before her marriage was Miss Susanna R. Thomas, was 16 at the time of the wedding and Mr. Fisher was 23.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were born in Mason county. At the time of his birth on Feb. 4, 1854, and at the time of her birth on March 16, 1861, the county was in Virginia, but the state was divided on June 20, 1863, and the county was then in West Virginia. This was near Point Pleasant, where the Kanawha river flows into the Ohio and where one of the important battles of the Civil war was fought.

Mr. Fisher heard the guns and cannons of the battle, but was too young to participate in the fighting. However, his older brother, Jake Fisher, 85, now of Conway Springs, and another brother, David, now of Enid, were active in the ranks of the Confederate army. Fisher has a brother, Robert, of Milan, Kans., and two other brothers, George and Johnnie, both living in West Virginia.





Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher

He is a brother of Mrs. Emma Duffy, of Checotah, the mother of Charles B. Duffy, state senator of this county. There were 14 children in the Fisher family.

Mrs. Fisher has two brothers, Charles and Grif Thomas, and three sisters, Mrs. Blanch Pickens, Mrs. Myrt Sayre and Mrs. Med Peck, who all reside in West Virginia, and another brother, John Thomas, of Illinois.

The couple have six children, seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

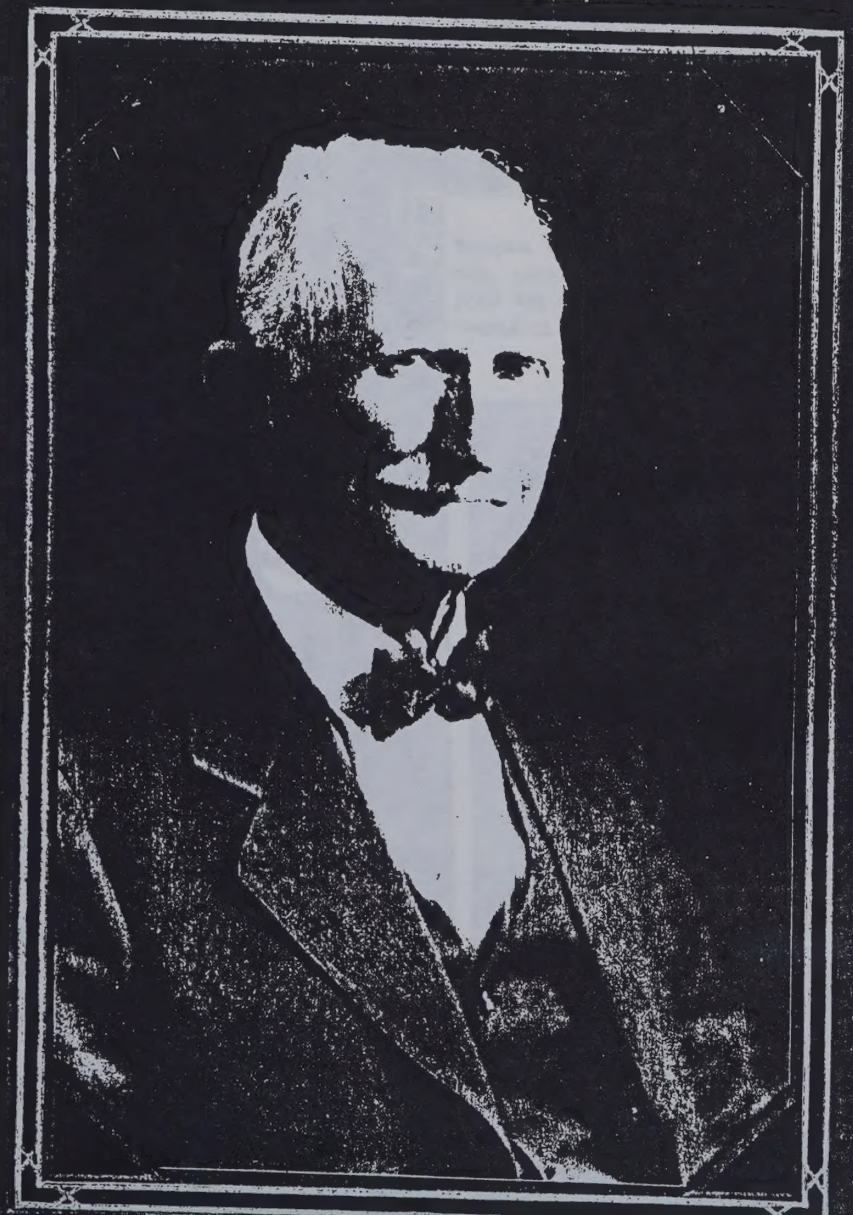
Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher lived for several years in a 1-room log cabin where the first baby, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, was rocked in a sugar tree which had been hollowed out. From this community in West Virginia, they moved to Sugar Camp Hollow in the same state, later moving to Argonia, Kans., in 1909.

They came to Blackwell in 1918 and have resided at their present residence since that time. Mr. Fisher's occupations have been school teacher and farmer.

His hobbies are numerous for he delights in gardening, fishing, hunting and in carpenter work. In recent years he has constructed a miniature log cabin similar to his childhood home which shows one room and loft, with the cabin having only one window.

Mrs. Fisher's favorite pastime is piecing quilts and sewing.

Thursday, the 60th wedding anniversary of the couple, marked the first anniversary they have celebrated in eight years.



Dinner Sunday to Celebrate Their 64th Anniversary

Family Party Will Be Held Today For The J. T. Fishers

To celebrate the 64th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, which occurs on Tuesday, Mrs. J. B. Sheets will entertain at dinner Sunday with a family party in her home, 421 East Ferguson.

Spring flowers will be used for room and table decorations.

Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fisher of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Walcher and daughter, Sue Ala, of Wichita; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Roush and children, Nancy and Suzanne, of Ponca City; and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Walcher and children, Ernie Brock, Barbara Jean, and Jo Ann.

Three other children of the couple, C. E. Fisher of Audibon, Minn.; and Mrs. A. F. Bernider and Mrs. W. R. Skalitsky, both of Los Angeles, will be unable to attend.

The Fishers were born within 10 miles of each other near Point Pleasant, W. Va., where they were married April 8, 1877.

Mrs. Fisher, who was Miss Susannah Thomas, celebrated her 80th birth anniversary March 16 and Mr. Fisher his 87th Feb. 4.

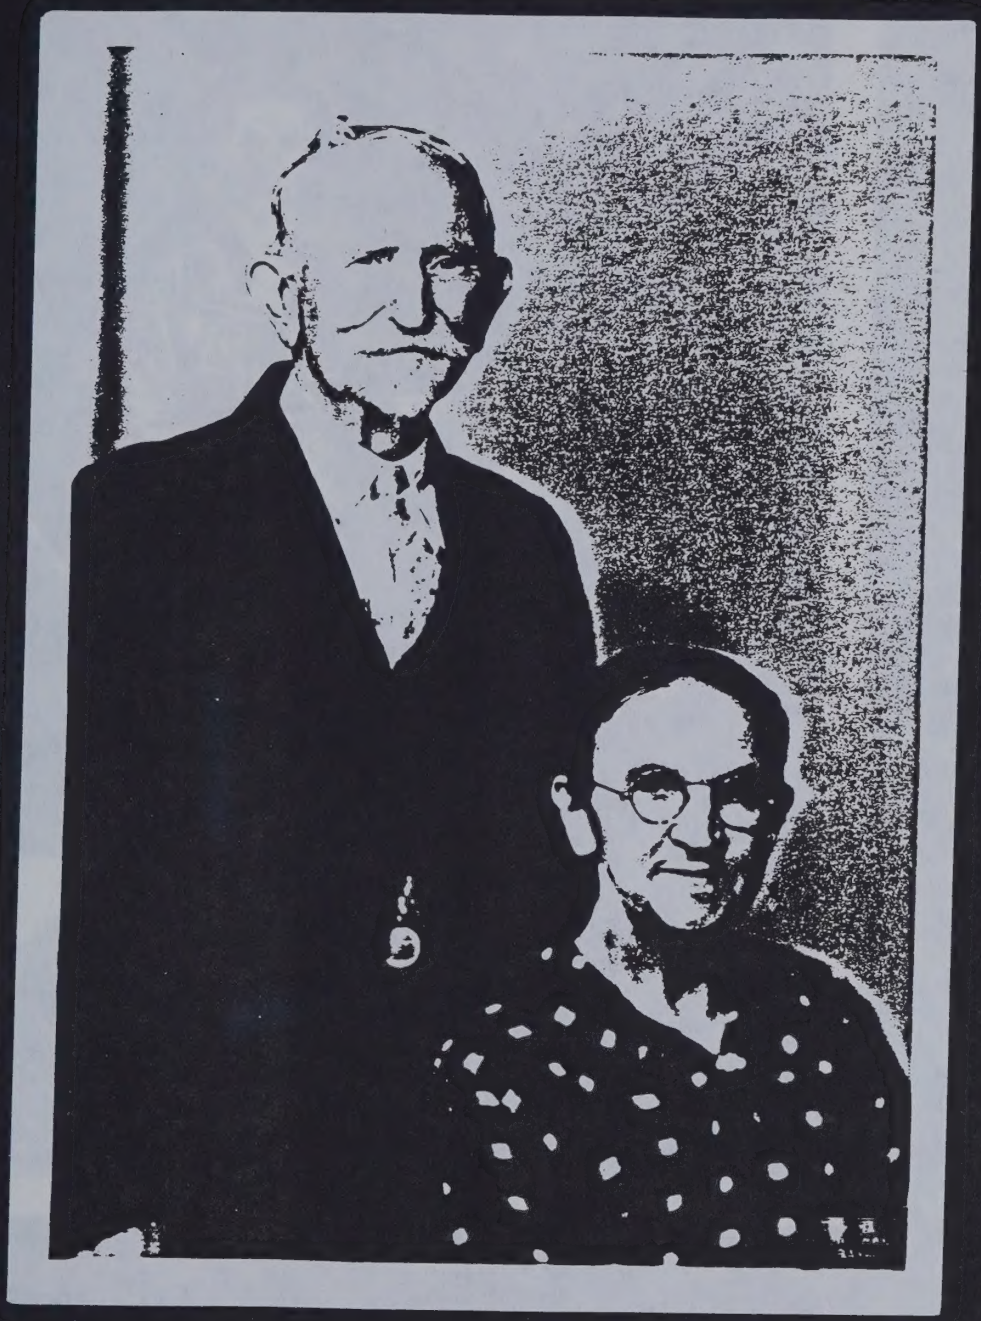
The couple lived in West Virginia until 1909 when they came to Argonia, Kans.

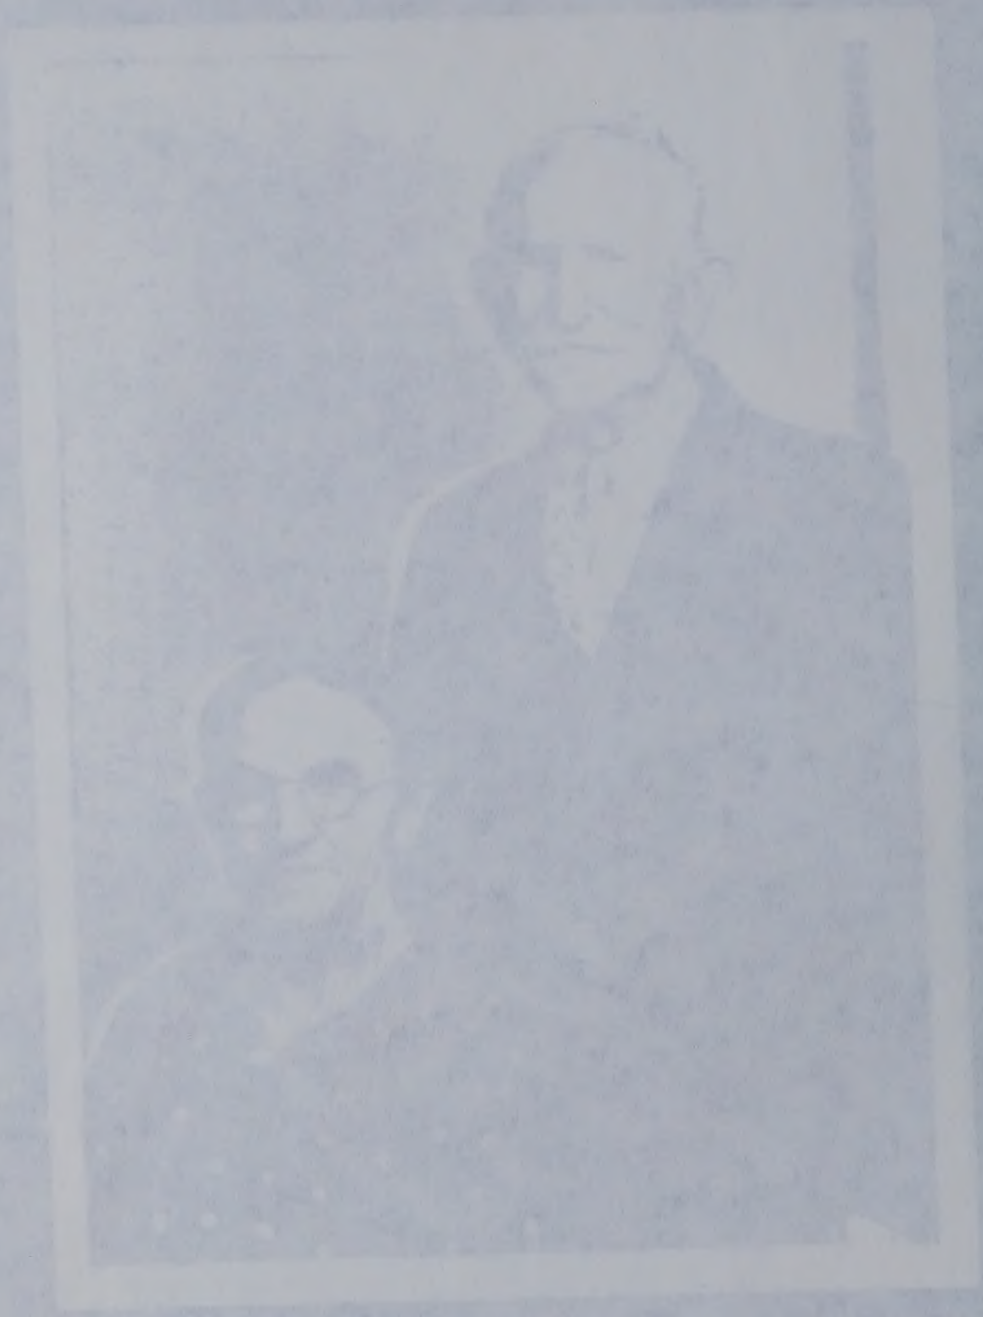
They have lived in Blackwell since 1918.

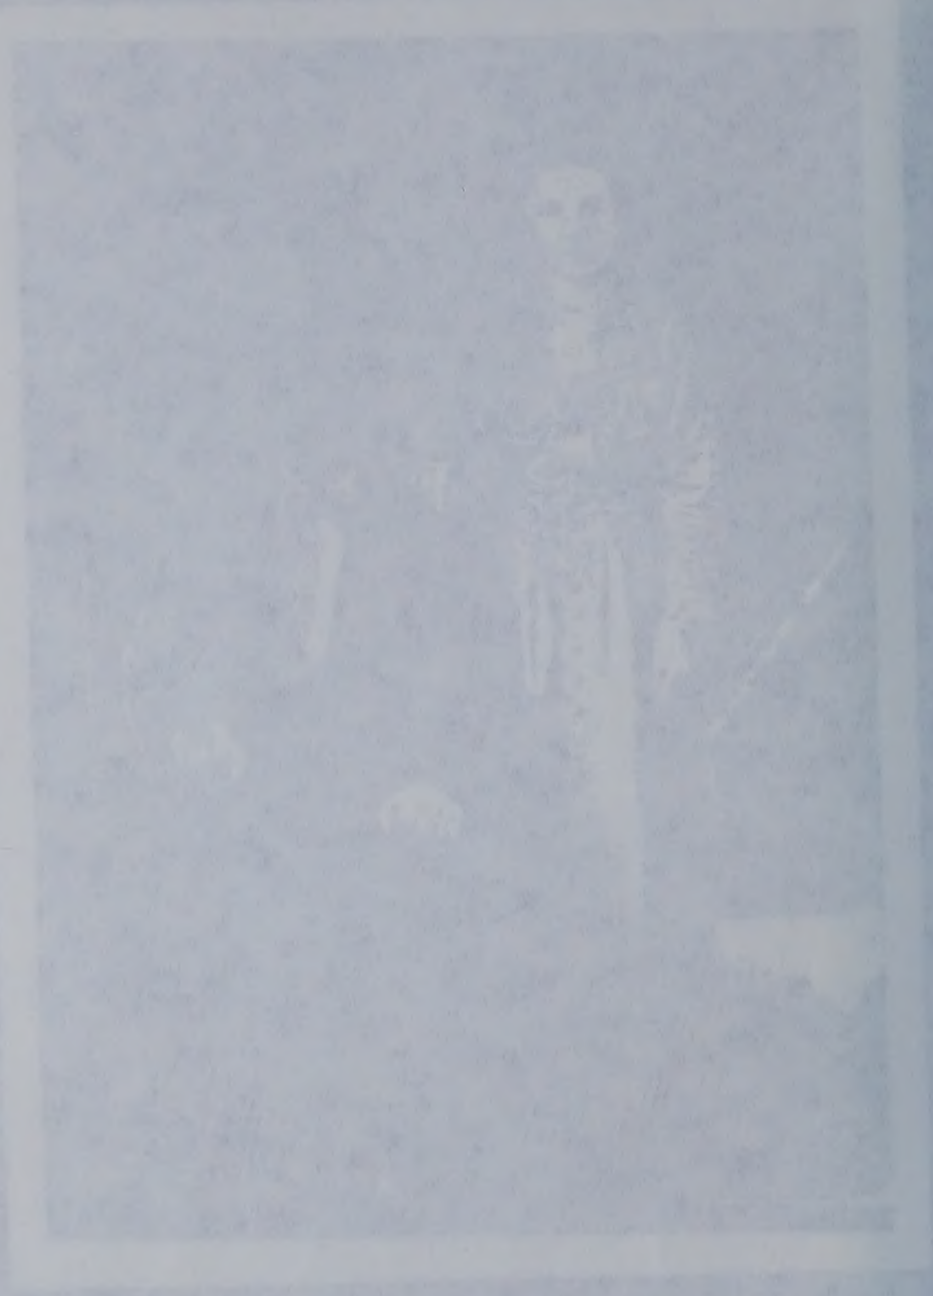
Mr. Fisher, now retired, was a farmer and veterinary.

AS THEY WERE 64 YEARS AGO—AND TODAY

SIXTY-FOUR YEARS have elapsed since the first picture, left, was taken of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma, soon after their marriage near Point Pleasant, W. Va. The picture on the right was taken at the time of the celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary. Their daughter, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, 421 East Ferguson, will entertain at dinner Sunday in celebration of their 64th wedding anniversary Tuesday.







FISHER FAMILY TO HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion of the Fisher family will be held June 5 at the Park House in Wellington.

A sketch or narrative of the Helper family from pioneer days down to the present time, written by members of the family, follows:

Andrew Helper was born February 25, 1779 and his demise occurred February 25, 1854, or on the anniversary of his seventy-fifth year. Hanna (Utt) Helper was born Dec. 4, 1788, and passed away Jan. 24, 1875, at the age of 86 years, 1 month and 20 days, at the home of her daughter, Mary Jane Fisher, in Mason County, W. Va., with whom she had made her home for a number of years. As we all remember Mamma Helper, as we always called her, she was a great Bible reader and a devout Christian. These, our grandparents, were possibly married in 1802 as Mama frequently boasted of her marriage at the age of fourteen.

At the time of their marriage they no doubt were living in Venaugo County, Pa., and partially raised their family there before emigrating to Chester, Meigs County, Ohio. This change must have taken place near the year 1840 when William H. Harrison was elected president of the United States as I have heard my mother speak of living there at the time. Within a very few years they moved from Chester over into Mason County then Virginia, and made their home there, engaging in the weaver's business for a number of years, weaving double coverlets and all other kinds of weaving. From their union were born six children. Aunt Bettie Helper, the oldest, whom, I suppose, never left Pennsylvania and quite likely married near where she was born. She married William Crawford of Crawford County, Pa., and reared a family of eight children, three boys and five girls, viz: Robert, Elizabeth, Hannah, Mary, William, Sarah, John and Clara, all of whom are dead except John to whom I have written but received no reply. The second daughter of this union was Aunt Fannie Helper, who must have also married near where she was reared in Crawford County. She married James Proper and reared a family of ten children, four boys and six girls, viz: Andrew, Reuben, William, Leonard, Hannah, Ellen, Mary, Venie, Clarisi and Lucinda. The last, Lucinda, never married. This family is all dead with the exception of William, who went to the Black Hills of South Dakota and has not been heard from for 16 years, Leonard was last heard from in Nebraska. Uncle Jacob Helper, the only son and third child, married Nancy Lewis of Mason County and made his home in Roane County, Va.; to this union were born two daughters, Hannah E. and Cassie M. After a few years Aunt Nancy passed away and Uncle Jacob subsequently married Polly Hammock. To this union were born a boy and a girl, Henry and Sallie, both of whom are now dead. The fourth child of the family was Mary Jane Helper who married Henry Fisher of Mason County, Va., and to this union were born 14 children: Andrew H., Henry U., Charles B., Jacob W., James T., David W., Hannah E., Joseph A., Robert M., Mary L., John A., Emma F., George M., and Clarisa L. Six boys and four boys are still living. The fifth aunt, Rachel Helper, married Uncle David Fisher, a widower, and brother of our father, Henry Fisher, and reared a family of six children, three boys and three girls, David, Clarisa, Hannah, Mack, Adam and Emma. The sixth aunt, Clarisa Helper, married William Robinson and reared a family of four children, one boy and three girls, Franklin P., Sadie, Lyda and Willie A. Later Aunt Clarisa became a widow and married John McDermott, a widower, and to this union two children were born, Belle and Homer. The writer of this sketch has had the pleasure, at one time or another, of meeting and visiting for a short while at least all of those mentioned in this sketch. Many years ago Aunt Bettie and Aunt Fannie, mentioned above, visited our home while Mama Helper was still living and spent two or three weeks with their mother and sister, our mother. This was about 60 years ago and while we were all quite young. The writer of this sketch is the fifth son of the Henry Fisher family.—J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma St., Blackwell, Okla.

In The Poet's Corner

Stick Together Families

The stick-together families are happier by far,
Than the brothers and sisters who take separate highways are.
The gaddest people living are wholesome folks who make,
A circle at the fireside, that no power but death can break.
And the finest conventions ever held beneath the sun,
Are the little family gatherings, when the busy day is done.
There are rich folk, there are poor folk, who imagine they are wise,
And they're very quick to shatter all the little family ties,
Each goes searching after pleasures in his own selected way,
Each with strangers likes to wander and with strangers likes to play.
But it's bitterness they harvest and it's empty joy they find,
For the children that are wisest are the stick-together kind.
There are some who seem to fancy that for gladness they must roam,
That for smiles that are brightest they must wander far from home.
That the strange friend is the true friend, and they travel far away.
But the gladdest sort of people when the busy day is done,
Are the brothers and the sisters who together share their fun.
It's the stick-together family that wins the joys of earth,
That hears the sweetest music, and that finds the finest mirth,
It's the old home roof that shelters all the charm that life can give,
There you find the gladdest playground, there the happiest spot to live,
And O, weary wandering brothers, if contentment you would find,
Come you back into the fireside, and be comrades with your kin.

Hi,
Thought I'd let you all know Eunice and I are still alive here in colorado after The Blizzard of 97! It started snowing friday evening about 5pm and snowed steadily for over 24 hours with the final snowfall totaling 30 inches on the flat , although the wind blew up to 50 miles/hour and drifts in the back yard were higher than 6 feet. The temp got down to 3 degrees the next night. thank goodness the electricity stayed on. We're headed for san jose for thanksgiving, and back in colorado after dec 1. Then off to kansas to visit our elderly parents-eunice's dad-95 on dec 4- my mother 94 in april. I haven't heard from some of you for ages- thought I'd try the cc column to see if I couldn't get a response.

Hi, barb and jack,
Hey, sounds like you are going to be having some fun on your trip. I know you're gone now, but when you get back from your trip, we'll be gone again. As you might remember in my xmas letter, I was going to Germany and England for 3 weeks in May and June. Had a great time, as the group were all related (on the Grimm side), and we had a bus for for 50 people with just 28 of us, so we really were comfortable. We had the same bus and driver for the 2 weeks I was in Germany. 4 days after I got back, I came down with viral pneumonia- flat on my back for 4 weeks, with 4 to 5 degree fever all the time. However, I think I've got it whipped now and am starting to exercise again. I scheduled my astronaut physical for the 15th of August in Houston with NASA (it's a TOTAL physical and free) . We're leaving next week and will be gone until Labor Day, as we'll be visiting old friends in Texas. Visited the ancestral villages of the Fischers in the Palatine area of Germany-also the old churches- did not have as much time to do genealogy as I would have liked, but on a tour,one doesn't have much choice. She had a ruptured disc in her lower back while I was gone- she had just gotten back from taking care of our daughter's family during the new addition, so we've had a rather unusual summer. Hope you guys have a great time on your vacation-let us hear from you on your return.
Our Best,
dean and eunice

Wow! What a year this has been for us. Dean has been in the hospital 5 times for angiograms, cleaning out his stents, hopefully by March a radiation procedure will be available. Of course I didn't want to be left out, so on Sept 30, I entered the hospital for 9 days & surgery, due to a blocked bowel - caused by adhesions that grew around a portion of my small intestine. Real fun! At this moment we are doing fine. We have our "ups" & "downs" and you can tell this is a "down" with the computer. We made a trip to Kansas to see our parents, they are doing fine! We are staying here for the holidays! Sounds like we are going to get some very cold weather. Our Calif. family are all doing great, as is our Parker family - They are all very busy with the children and the guys do a lot of traveling. Dean and I took care of Kelsey & Alexis from Nov. 30 till Dec 7, as Greg & Karen went to Italy for pleasure and business. We had a great time - the girls told us we did a great job caring for them! (They had been here only 1½ hrs Ha) Dean and I wish you and your loved ones a Very Merry Christmas & a Happy year 2001!

HOLIDAY GREETINGS, ONE AND ALL!

It started snowing yesterday morning about 7AM, and continued until this morning about the same time. It snowed about a foot, altogether. We really needed the moisture, as this has been the driest year for quite some time. It is quite beautiful out now with the sun shining and no wind. Our young neighbors came and shoveled the snow from our sidewalks and driveway. I help them during the good weather and they help us during the bad weather.

I have no idea how the Y2K problem is going to affect us personally, but I installed a generator, for backup power, for the furnace and other essential things. Our power usually is out at least once a week anyhow, so we're going to be warm, regardless of the circumstances.

This year, up to November, has been similar to the ones of the past. We went back to Kansas about once a month to visit Eunice's father (97) and my mother (95), and to help doing various things for them. I went to NASA at Houston for my every 2-year physical in May. This also allowed us to visit friends and family along the way. We then went on an extended trip back to the East Coast for family reunions and a last shot at some genealogy, while again visiting friends and relatives along the way. NASA had indicated that my physical wasn't quite normal, so I consulted a Cardiologist on our return from our trip. After seeing a second one, it was confirmed through an Angiogram that I needed bypass surgery, which I had on the 4th of November. They get you up and walking the day after surgery, so it's been fun and games ever since. I walk about a mile to a mile and a half each day outside when the weather is good, or on the treadmill, when it's not. I've had some problems with fluid retention in my lungs, but am working on that. The whole thing has been very exasperating, , but I will prevail! --and Eunice has been an excellent nurse.

I finished another genealogy book this spring- on Eunice's mother's family-that's 3 now. When I'm in a better humor after the holidays, I'm going to start on one of my lines.

We were headed for California to see Deana and her family for Thanksgiving, but obviously, that got postponed for a while. We still plan to go out for about 3 weeks in the latter part of January, if I'm recuperating properly. Greg and family live just a mile from us, so we are entertained by Alexis-7- and Kelsey-9-. We obviously plan to be here for the holidays and are waiting with great anticipation –the year 2000 and Y2K!

We hope you and yours have a wonderful holiday season and that the coming year will be kind to all of us!

Best wishes to all,

Dean & Eunice

Holiday Greetings:

As our 6 year old grdson is fond of saying-" Can you believe it, Grandma Euny?" --- Yes, Tyler, I believe there is a Santa - and this year, as usual, he will try to out - do his efforts of years past!

He may be in trouble when he gets to our house though, as we have one of those hi-falutin fireplaces that's sealed, with a small stovepipe out through the side of the house. It might be a tight fit, but just in case, (to be on the safe side - ho - ho - ho) we'll probably leave some M & M cookies, that Grandma baked, out for him to snack on, ---and some appropriate X-MAS music played by our electronic hand (oxymoron) bells!!

If the above gibberish sounds like letter-procrastination - you win the Kewpie doll ! My literary juices have failed once again, so from here on - ready or not! - begins the Grimm Fairy Tales of 1996!

It seems when one is retired, with nothing to do each day, that we've found a surprising number of things and activities to do - which keep us active, mostly healthy, sometimes wiser and definitely poorer! Dean (me) decided in February that he couldn't see his front porch, so he dragged his reluctant wife (Eunice) ,screaming and kicking, into diet and exercise program. Our goals set - we embarked with a vengeance, Dean losing 35 lbs. and Eunice 15 - and with a few bumps along the way - managed to keep it off. Dean(me) is aiming drop another 10 lbs. or so and maybe get off the cholesterol pill. Eunice has done fabulously, considering her limited ability to exercise strenuously.

The above information (more than you ever wanted to know) about covers the active and healthy part, minus a couple of minor surgeries for me on my hand and feet.

Next - our gadding about - covers the poorer part !! We've had a number of old friends come by for a visit, and in turn, on several trips, visited other old friends. Interspersed between some of these, we had a delightful trip to Jackson Hole, Wyoming in the spring with Greg , Karen and kids Kelsey(6) and Alexis(3). In early summer, Deana, Gary and kids Tyler(6) and Brooke(3) came from Morgan Hill, California to spend 3 weeks with us - some of which we spent in a large cabin in the mountains (8500+ft)near Estes Park, Colorado - and with Karen and her kids joining us and having a all having a ball - hiking, exploring, and whatever entertains 6 and 3 year-olds - (We're constantly amazed at what APPARENTLY goes on in their minds and out of their mouths !!!!). You have to be there to believe it! - as Tyler says again !!!

In mid-summer, We went east again in search of more relatives (mostly deceased) - went to 2 family (Grimm side) reunions in Pennsylvania and numerous side trips into nooks and crannies there and in Ohio and Indiana where we met new (to us) relatives and inspected ancestor's final resting places, homes and their churches dating back to 1733.

As usual , we've been back to Newton, Kansas numerous times, with and without our children and their kids, to see my mother(92) and Eunice's father (94) - while racking up 15000 miles on our new Dodge Grand Caravan since April 96'.

We're going to be in Parker for Christmas and share the festivities with Greg and his family.

And by the way, SURPRISE, to us and most especially to Deana, -- that she's expecting Dillon Grimm Montgomery to arrive on the scene April 9, 1997, or WHENEVER he feels like it.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you throughout the holiday season and the coming New Year,

Eunice & Dean

Hi - went to Enid last week & did research on Andrew H & David W. Fisher - found graves & obits in newspaper. - Now I need to find a living relative!

Dean

December 12, 1997

Greetings From Colorado!
It is time once again to share a few tidbits of year 1997....
We have had a good year----or at least we won't complain...Our daughter Deana and hubbie, Gary added to our grandchildren. On March 23, Dylan joined the family in California and now we can claim 5 grandchildren. Dylan is our first grandchild that has blue eyes and reddish brown hair(Eunice will take a little credit for the blue eyes anyway). We had a nice visit with them at Thanksgiving, spent 10 days out there, we were "entertained " believe me . Dylan is trying to walk and he is a very nice dispositioned baby. The walking is coming too early according to his mother!!!!!
We will be spending Christmas with our son Greg and wife Karen,and kids-Kelsey and Alexis here in Parker. We will be "entertained" here also. Kelsey is our very serious granddaughter and Alexis keeps things moving, believe me. One day she informed Grandpa and Grandma she was going home to get her clothes and was moving in with us... NOW that was a shock...Hope she was just kidding!!!!!!
In May, Dean took a trip to Germany with relatives from 9 states in the U.S. They visited their ancestors homeland-towns and churches. After 2 weeks with the tour , he left the tour and went to England to visit a cousin . He had a very interesting trip and now can add to his genealogy program.
In August, we took a trip to Houston, Texas, for Dean's NASA physical (every 2 years) and visited friends of 40 years and more and rehashed old memories--- Had to make sure we all agreed on the old memories, as age can play tricks on one's mind....Had a great time..
In the past week we went to visit our parents. My Dad was 95 on the 4th of this month and Dean's mother is 94. They have their ups and downs... Dad broke his hip in August and has rebounded to "up" in a wheelchair and Mom Grimm has been put "down " in a wheelchair due to several small strokes she has had the past months...but all in all, they are doing okay.
Now for this "thing" called EL NINO --it is something else. As you read,I am blaming this snow on that, the weather in the Rockies sure can be" rocky ", we have had 36 inches of snow in late October, during a 24 hour period. And HOWLING WINDS sounds like"Wuthering Heights" on the radio back in the 30's.
We have very brave weathermen around here as they are predicting 60 degree weather on Sunday.. It will be nice, maybe it will melt some of this snow. Thanks for an "elf" called Greg, he shovels our snow packed driveway nice and clean , in case we need to go the grocery store. (good thinking), guess Santa will need to put an extra gift in that elf's stocking!!!
Enough rambling, we are all fine and again we wish you and your loved ones.....

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

As Ever,

Eunice and Dean

Dear Barbara + Jack –

It's taken me awhile – but finally – here are those pictures. Don't know where the time goes, but it gets by me before I know it. It has been a very busy summer for us.

We enjoyed your visit so much. It was fun trading stories and I hope we can can get together again one of these days.

After I had these pictures copied, I found I'd left out one of Uncle John + Aunt Mystie Pickens. They lived in Enid. One of their grandsons lives there – Judge Richard Pickens – and I'm planning to get together with him soon. I hope he may have some pictures too.

A grandson of Lucy Pickens Roush lives in Carmen, but I'm afraid I never see him. His name is Eldon Roush (son of Fred.)

Well – if I come up with any more information, I'll pass it on. Thanks for all help you gave me.

I haven't heard anything from Virginia but I'll keep trying.

With best wishes + have a happy 4th of July –

OBITUARIES

Ferne E. Fisher

Ferne E. Fisher, 96, of Battle Lake died Friday, September 2, in the Battle Lake Care Center in Battle Lake.

Services were Tuesday, September 6 at the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church in Battle Lake with Pastor David Baynes officiating.

Music was provided by Karen Dreyer as organist and Eunice Swedberg, pianist. Soloist George Hendrickson sang "The Love of God" and "The Lord's Prayer" and Nellie Hamilton, soloist, sang "What A Friend We Have In Jesus".

Pallbearers were Gerold Hamilton, Robert Swedberg, Vern Charest, LaVerne Newton, Oliver Jacobson and Clarence Whiting. Burial was in Lakewood Cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were Lloyd West, George Hendrickson and Bud Abbott.

Ferne Fisher was born and grew up in Willmar, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baxter McNees. She attended grade school, high school and business college in Willmar. She worked as a bookkeeper until 1917.

May 6, 1917, she married Austin A. Fisher May 6 in Oklahoma. They lived at Wellington, KS until Austin retired in 1956 from the Sante Fe Railroad. In 1959, they moved to Battle Lake. Ferne has been a resident of the Battle Lake Care Center since March of 1986.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Austin in 1963, an infant child and a sister, Ellen.

Mother was sharp enough to pick up on the fact that those people "Dreyers" she gave everything to were not mentioned as pall bearers,

Gloria Ann

Dear Barbara,

Enclosed is a copy of Charles Duffy's Obituary. It mentions their daughters as living at that time in Duncan and Oklahoma City. I entered the married names in the computer, and came up with the enclosed list of names from those areas that the daughters were listed as living.

Unfortunately, I don't have the husband's name, and that is how their phones are probably listed. There was a Virginia Donnell in Oklahoma City, and she could have moved there since 1979. However, some of those listed might be related to Charles's daughters.

You could contact the court clerk at the Kay County Courthouse and maybe find the names of Virginia and Dorothy's husbands. and that could help you find the girls.

Hope this helps you find your family,

Sincerely,

Loyd M. Bishop

East Junior High Vocal Music Students Awarded 80 Medals

A total of 80 medals were awarded to vocal music students at East Junior High who participated in the Northern District Contest at Northern Oklahoma College in Tonkawa.

Each participant in a solo or ensemble that receives a superior rating was awarded an individual medal in the March 9 event.

Soloists receiving superior ratings wre Diedra McGuire, Krista Waggerman and Donya Burlock, all eighth graders.

Of ten ensembles entered, eight received superior ratings and two received excellent ratings.

Fourteen superior ratings and two excellent ratings were given. The seventh grade mixed chorus, eighth grad chorus and ninth grade chorus, all under the direction of Mrs. Mary Sunshine Cogman, were rated superior in performance.

Piano accompaniments were played by Beckie Cooper, ninth grade accompanist; Miss Carol Shoffner, music and math teacher at East, and Mrs. Cogman.

Four PC Students On TU's Honor Roll

Four students from the Ponca City area have been named to the President's Honor Roll at University of Tulsa.

Listed were Gloris Franks, Paul Buller Jr., Karl Nesselrode and Kent Thele.

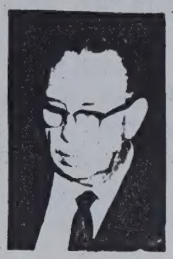
Students named to the President's Honor Roll achieved a perfect 4.0 for the fall semester, and those named to the Dean's Honor Roll achieved a 3.5 grade point average or better.

Henvy V, the uncrowned Holy Roman Emperor, was kidnapped by the Pope in 1111.

PC Attorney, Charles B. Duffy Dies

Charles B. Duffy, Ponca City attorney for over 50 years, died Sunday afternoon at his home, 221 Virginia. He was 78.

Born May 27, 1900, at Point Pleasant, W. Va., he was the son of William and Emma Duffy. He moved with his parents to Checotah at the age of six where he attended school and graduated from Checotah High School.



Charles B. Duffy

Following graduation he joined the U.S. Army Air Corps and served during World War I. After the war he attended the University of Oklahoma School of Law and received his law degree in 1922.

Duffy came to Ponca City in 1922 and set up his law practice. He and Vala Self of Carmen were married that same year. He was listed in Who's Who in America, served as president of the Oklahoma State Bar Association at one time, was a member of the Oklahoma State Senate for 12 years, 1932 to 1946, was a member of the committee on uniform laws for the state for six years, served as assistant Kay County attorney and president of the Kay County Bar Association.

A veteran of World War I, he was past Oklahoma commander of the American Legion and past commander of the American Legion Post Huff-Minor Post No. 14. He served as president of the O.U. Dad's Association and was a member of Delta Tau Delta and Phi Delta Phi fraternities.

Duffy had been District Governor of Rotary International at one time, past president of the Ponca City Rotary Club and a Paul Harris Fellow. He also served as chairman of Rotary Information Committee for many years.

He served the Ponca City School Board as attorney and was treasurer of the United Way for 30 years. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Mother Church, First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass.

Surviving are his wife of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Donnell, Duncan, and Mrs. Dorothy Work, Oklahoma City; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be 2 p.m. Tuesday in the First Presbyterian Church with Ernest Gough, Christian Science Reader, officiating. Burial will be in Odd Fellows Cemetery under direction of E.M. Trout and Sons Funeral Home.

Honorary casketbearers will be members of the Kay County Bar Association and Ponca City Rotary Club.

The casket will be closed following the service, but friends may call at the funeral home until 11:30 Tuesday morning. The family will be at the home on Virginia.

Memorial funds have been established and contributions may be made in Duffy's name to Christian Science Monitor Endowment Fund, Box 1064, Ponca City, or to the University of Oklahoma Foundation, Norman.

FISHER FAMILY HISTORY

Comp iled and written by J. T. Fisher, Blackwell, Okla.
(assisted in research and mimeographed by Chas. B. Duffy, Ponca City, Okla.)

LUDWIG FISHER was born and raised in Germany. He grew to manhood there and one day while strolling thru the Royal Observatory, he chanced to see a deer and shot and killed it. On returning home he related the incident to his father. His father, knowing this to be a crime punishable by penalty of death, prepared his son for the journey to America, took him to the port for sailing, and sent him to Culpepper County, Virginia. Ludwig settled there and in due time made the acquaintence of a lady whom he later married. This union reared a family of five sons.

ADAM FISHER, one of these sons, drifted over the mountains into Rockingham County, Virginia and settled there, where he eventually met and married Catherine Snider. They raised a family of seven sons and three daughters. The sons names were William, Joseph, David, Harvey, Jacob, Washington and Henry (who was the father of J.T.Fisher and his brothers and sisters).

This ADAM FISHER proved to be our grand-father.

In an early day, this family embarked in wagons and teams and made their way to the western part of Virginia and settled in the Upper Flats of Mason County. Shortly after landing there, they purchased a farm. This farm purchased by Adam Fisher was a 200 acre farm, for which he paid $400.; later he purchased an 80 acres adjoining it on the east for $80. He also obtained a patent on a 500 acre place. which he afterward sold to his two sons Joseph, and Henry(our father).

WILLIAM FISHER married a lady from Ohio and raised two daughters and one son. Catherine, the older daughter, married George McDaniel and raised two sons and two daughters; Franklyn and George, the sons, and Frances and Ella, the daughters. He also raised an illegitimate son, who drifted over into Putnam County, Virginia, and married, and raised two daughters and a son. The son J.M.Fisher married and raised a family of five or six sons and fully as many daughters.

JOSEPH FISHER married a Partlow and raised two sons and three daughters, namely: Jacob, Thomas H., Mary Anne, Lucy Anne, and Martha Anne. Jacob married Jennie Riffle and raised one daughter and passed away. Mary Anne married James A. Rayburn and they raised two daughters and one son, Viola, Ida M. and Charles T. Viola married and raised one son. Her son and husband both passed away. Ida M. married whenup in years and reared no family. Charles T. married Carrie Zuspan and they raised two daughters and one son. Lucy Anne xxxxxxxx xxx married George Van Sickle, when up in years and they had no family. George passed away suddenly while traveling to market in a wagon. Lucy Anne passed away at Pt. Pleasant, W.Va. later on. Martha Anne married Jonathan Riffle and they raised two sons and one daughter. Thomas, the older son, went west and remained out there. Joseph married and a few years later passed away. Levia Jane was still single, living with friends, the last I heard of her. Thomas H. married Sarah Rayburn and they raised two daughters and one son. The daughters both passed away unmarried. The son married a Miss McMillan and they had 4 children. Thomas H. married a lady from the east and they raised a son Dorsel and a daughter Wanda. Both Thomas H. and wife are now deceased.

DAVID FISHER married a Roush and had five sons, Matison, Henry, Daniel, George and Peter; and four daughters, Belle, Mary, Anne and Kitty. Later his wife passed away and he married Rachel Helper and they had seven children, namely, David, Mack, Adam, Emma, Hannah, Clarissa Jane, and Lyda. Clarissa Jane married Daniel W. Quimby and to them were born 14 children, five of whom are deceased, and those living afe: David H. (single); William W. who is married and has 1 son and 1 daughter; Charles A. who is married and has 3 sons and 4 daughters, and 1 son deceased; Emma L. who is married and has 2 daughters and 2 sons; Rachel, married ans has 1 daughter and 1 son; Chester, who is single; Clara E. married and has 2 sons; Mollie, who is single; AlbertM. is married and has 1 daughter and 2 sons. (Emma L. married J. P. Denny and they now live in Wellington,Kansas.)

JACOB FISHER married a Van Matre, later moving into Kansas where they raised a family of both sons and daughters.

WASHINGTON FISHER married a Hart and raised four sons and three daughters, namely, Wesly, Matison, James, Samuel, Catherine, Charlottie and Betsey.

AUNT POLLY FISHER married a Will in Meigs County, Ohio, and raised a family of five sons, namely, David, John, George, William and Andrew. After her husband passed away, she married a Mr. Crumbaker and raised one daughter, Emily.

SUSAN married a Spencer and raised a family of sons and daughters.

KATIE married William Ball and raised two sons and one daughter, namely, James, Thomas and Caroline.

(Here begins our immediate family's history)

HENRY FISHER (our grandfather) married MARY JANE HELPER (our grandmother), and they raised a family of ten sons and four daughters, as follows: A.H.(Bub); H.U.(Utt); C.B.(Charles); J.W.(Jake); J.T.(Tom); D.W.(Dave); Hannah C.(Kate); J.A.(Joe); R.M.(Rob); Mary L.(Louise); J.A.(Johnny); Emma F.(Emma); G.M.(Georgie) and Clarissa L.(Venie)

(Oct. 27, 1943. Several months have been spent in writing letters assembling the above data, and much of it is yet incomplete, due to our inability to get full responses to our inquiries. We regret the many mistakes we know this contains, and it incompleteness in many respects, but we've done the best we could with the material available. May we suggest that someone else each few years hence, bring this history down to date and mimeograph a "new edition thereof." May we in closing offer to Uncle Tom Fisher, on behalf of all of us, our deepest thanks for his untiring efforts in preserving and making available to us the early history of the Fisher Family. Chas. B. Luffy.)
